Five Witnesses Are Called at Trial

Man Who Found Body of Miss Bergemann Heads List

Five witnesses were called at the morning session to testify in County Court in the Theodore Lutzler, first degree murder trial, among them being Sterling S. Jansen, 30, of High Falls who discovered the body of Ruth S. Bergemann lying on the road near the High Falls post office around 2 a. m. last November 27.

Jansen, accompanied by his wife, came upon the body "before 2 a. m." and it was he who notified the sheriff's office.

Jansen said he had just turned his car from the main highway at the corner when he observed a body on the highway. His wife also saw it and said there was a body on the road.

After stopping his car, Jansen said he went over to the body, placed a hand upon the shoulder to ascertain whether the woman was breathing and to the best of his knowledge the woman appeared to be dead. He went back to the Jesse Williams place and called the sheriff.

At the time Jansen said he believed the woman was Ruth Bergemann. He knew her prior to the time. The body was in the center of the road and appeared to be lying on its stomach. He said the clothing was not disarranged and the collar of her coat was over the face. Both shoes were off but one lay between the feet. Her clothing, he said, appeared "very neat." He said he left the scene later to locate a brother of deceased in Rosendale. He remained while pictures were taken and the body was in the same position when the pictures were taken when he first saw it. It had been covered with a

Russians Stream Into Shanghai, Is Travelers' Report

Hong Kong, April 13 (AP)—Russians are streaming into Shanghai, 88 foreigners just arrived from Communist China said today.

"You don't see them so much as you feel them." That was the comment of one of the arrivals, the first large group to get out of Shanghai since the Reds eased their ban on train travel by foreigners.

Best estimate of these foreigners is that about 5,000 Russians are in Shanghai—mostly civilian technicians and political workers. Not a one saw a Russian in military uniform.

This was in contrast to many reports that have filtered into Hong Kong. These within recent weeks have had Russian soldiers patrolling Shanghai streets, manning anti-aircraft defenses and doing other active military duties.

The arrivals, who included four Americans, said the Russians are being given the best housing accommodations in Shanghai—a situation arousing much resentment.

The 88 were among 154 foreigners packed on the little coastal vessel Heinrich Jensen, built to accommodate 36 passengers. The ship took them aboard at Tientsin, North China port where they had gone by rail from Shanghai.

Sixty-eight other passengers were evacuees from North China brought out by the International Refugee Organization. They left immediately by air for Palestine.

Fireplace Spark Said to Have Ignited Roof; Kingston Gives Help

Fire destroyed one of Hurley's historic old homes at midnight last night.

The two-story stone and frame dwelling, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson, was a total loss, Hurley Fire Chief Winfred Snyder reported this morning.

Firemen from Hurley and Kingston battled for more than two hours but, hampered by lack of water, were unable to save the building, the fire chief said.

Only Walls Remain

Only the walls of the stone section of the building, a small frame lean-to addition and the flooring over an unexcavated portion of the basement were left standing. The building had six rooms and two baths and consisted of the original stone structure with frame additions. It stood on the Zandhoeck road near the Hurley cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and their two children escaped with the clothing they were able to put on. They were taken in for the night by George C. Dixon, a neighbor. An apartment in the building had recently been rented to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Langs.

Some Furnishings Saved

Most of the furnishings on the ground floor were saved by firemen and neighbors, Chief Snyder said. Other furnishings, clothing and personal effects were lost, he said. The amount of insurance coverage was not known this morning, the chief reported.

The fire was attributed by Chief Snyder to sparks from a fire in the fireplace. The sparks apparently set fire to the wooden shingles of the roof, he said.

Johnson, who had retired for the night, said he was awakened by a crackling sound and he telephoned the alarm at 11:45 p. m.

Had Good Start

The entire rear section of the roof was involved in flames on arrival of the Hurley fire company. At 11:45 Chief Snyder requested aid through the mutual aid system and two pumpers from Kingston were dispatched.

The Hurley company used water from a 450-gallon tank on its pumper and from a 2,000-gallon tank truck. Kingston's Engine No. 3 from Wiltwyck station used a hydrant stream but was hampered by insufficient pressure, Chief Snyder said.

Excelsior Hose Company also responded from Kingston but was sent back to cover at Wiltwyck station when it was found the additional apparatus could not be used due to lack of water, the Hurley chief said.

Kingston firemen were under the direction of Deputy Chief James M. Beett.

A heavy snowfall at the time assisted in preventing the spread of flames to nearby buildings, Chief Snyder said.

Dates to Colonial Times

The original stone part of the building, which is located on the Zandhoeck road near the Hurley Cemetery, is believed to date back to Colonial times.

Dewey Signs Senate House, Museum Bill

Governor Thomas E. Dewey on Wednesday signed into law an act which paves the way for a measure of local jurisdiction and control of the Senate House and the Senate House Museum in this city.

The act, introduced by Senator Arthur H. Wicks, provides for the appointment by the governor of a board of trustees of the Senate House and museum.

The board "shall have the management, supervision and custody of the Senate House and Senate House Museum at Kingston and grounds connected therewith, together with additions and extensions thereto heretofore or hereafter acquired pursuant to law, and all property of the state therein or thereon, and shall preserve the same as nearly as may be, in their original state," the new law provides.

10 Members of Board

The board of trustees will be known as the Senate House Association and will consist of 10 members. Presumably, at least, part of the members will be local residents.

Previously, the Senate House and its museum was under the jurisdiction of the state education department through the state historian. The newly created Senate House Association will officially be within the education department, but will have direct control over the local historical site.

Authority Is Outlined

The board of trustees is given authority in the law to collect and acquire for the state, and preserve within the premises, such "furniture, relics, mementos and records as it deems appropriate."

The board may accept money or property by gift or bequest for any purpose consistent with its powers and duties. It shall direct the expenditure of all moneys realized from such gifts or appropriated by the state for any purpose outlined in the list of duties of the board.

The law allows the new board

Dewey Acts For Felicity On Policies

Governor in Address at Princeton Chides Republicans as Boat Rockers

Gravity Stressed

Full Concentration Is Needed, He Says of Situation

Princeton, N. J., April 13 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey assumed the role of political conciliator today in an attempt to get Democrats and Republicans rowing together for a "genuine bi-partisan" foreign policy.

He called on President Truman to give the G.O.P. a real chance to help guide the current cold war, and then chided his fellow Republicans for trying to rock the boat. The former Republican presidential candidate made his proposal last night in the third of his series of four Princeton University lectures on the American Political System. He will conclude the talks tonight with a discussion of the nation's domestic policies.

Dewey listed strengthened bi-partisan planning as the nation's number-one need in the prosecution of the cold war. He said it required "a radical improvement in the attitude of both the Democratic National Administration and sections of the Republican party."

The New York governor said that bi-partisanship in foreign policy had been converted by Democrats into "a shadow instead of a reality."

But he said he saw some improvement in the recent appointment of the Republican John Foster Dulles to serve as consultant to Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

He cautioned fellow G.O.P. leaders that "to any sincere offer to bi-partisanship at a time like this, the Republican party must of course respond."

'All in Same Boat'

And this, he said, was no time for rocking the boat even if it was run mainly by Democrats. "Before any Republican rejoices at the possible shipwreck of the foreign policy of the Democratic administration," Dewey said, "he should remember that we are all in the same boat."

He said he was "profoundly convinced that American initiative can save our freedom and that of much of the world. But the hour is very late."

He described the situation as "so grave as to require us to concentrate our whole effort as a nation toward its solution. The situation requires a supreme and unified effort commanding the best experience and brains in the country."

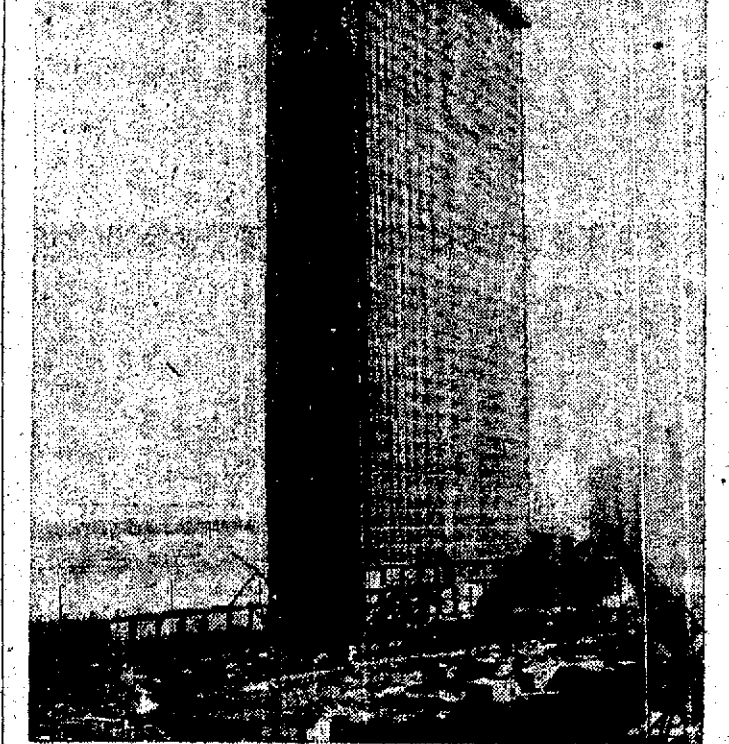

Dewey clearly enjoyed his assignment as a college lecturer. His 70-minute talk before an audience of some 1,000 was sprinkled with data of humor. Later he relaxed with a cigarette in a small black holder and answered questions for 45 more minutes, discussing foreign policy matters in a casual exchange with the students.

President Orders Probe, Says Crime Nation-wide

Two Ulsterites Are Accused As Arsonists

Hudson, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—Four striking employees of the Knaust Brothers mushroom firm are charged with third-degree arson in connection with a fire that destroyed a company pump-house.

The men pleaded innocent last night. Justice of the Peace Chester W. Merrillfield of Claverack scheduled a hearing for April 18. State Police quoted one of the men as saying all four were members of the C.I.O. Textile Workers Union, which has been on strike against the company since March 10.

The pump-house at mushroom caves near Linlithgo, six miles south of here, burned March 31. The company estimated the loss at $2,500.

Another fire, March 28, damaged a building at a Knaust plant near Rosendale, Ulster county. The Ulster county district attorney's office said last night it still was investigating that blaze, which caused an estimated $15,000 damage.

The four accused of setting fire to the pump-house were William H. Burlington, 27, West Hurley; George E. Kuderat, 28, Catskill; Vincent A. Macdonell, 34, Catskill; and Alfred Clearwater, 18, Glaxo.

They were released in $2,500 bond each pending the hearing Tuesday.

The C.I.O. Union is trying to organize workers at 17 Knaust plants in the Hudson river valley. The plants have continued to operate.

Soft Coal Picture Is Not Bright One

Spreading Unemployment Is Feared; Gas, Oil Affect Sales

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—The nation's soft coal industry is suffering the slings of curtailed production today while even greater woes are foreseen in the immediate future.

Industry spokesmen predicted spreading unemployment and a chain of mine closings as a result of reduced coal output and the inroads of competitive fuels.

The nation's 8,000 bituminous (soft) coal mines produced a record-breaking 631,000,000 tons in 1947. Now they are reverting to a normal market estimated at around 400,000,000 tons. Last year 430,000,000 tons was dug despite several strikes.

Many high cost or low quality mines already are being squeezed out. And thousands of miners are joining the ranks of job hunters.

The National Coal Association estimates 50,000 coal miners will be jobless in coming months. Another 50,000 transport workers, who haul coal from mine to market, also will be laid off, the N.C.A. predicts, as the result of oil imports alone.

Natural gas and fuel oil continue to creep into fields once dominated by coal. Railroads are after the coal strike, to exceed January's level. Home building set a record.

Per capita personal income, after allowing for taxes, was at a rate which exceeded even the average of booming 1948. It was estimated at $1,323 for every man, woman and child.

And consumers' prices, for the average city family, were down about 1 1/2 per cent from a year ago.

The nation's output of all goods and services was measured at an annual rate of $258,000,000,000 for the quarter. This was below the rate of a year ago but the movement was upward, not down.

The council sent to Congress yesterday its monthly report, "economic indicators," covering the first three months of what the council had predicted would be a "good year."

The forecast has been borne out, thus far. National income climbed, after falling throughout 1949. Industrial production surged back,

Proposes Grand Jury Examine St. Louis as Well as Kansas City; Attorney General to Determine Status

Washington, April 13 (AP)—President Truman said today the crime problem is nation-wide and not restricted to Kansas City.

He said it extends also to places like St. Louis and even to Washington.

Mr. Truman said that he himself had ordered a grand jury investigation of the crime situation in Kansas City and proposed one in St. Louis.

The jury probe in Kansas City has been under way for some time. He said other grand juries were operating elsewhere as part of an inquiry that is nation-wide in scope.

The Senate also is considering an investigation of crime and gambling but a controversy has arisen over how it will be handled.

The crime discussion came up at the President's news conference as a result of questions built around the murder of Charles Binaggio, Kansas City political figure, and a lieutenant last Thursday.

A reporter noted that the two murdered men had been witnesses before the grand jury in Kansas City that was probing racketeers. He said Attorney General McGrath apparently has not found legal authority for bringing the F.B.I. into the case although Governor Smith of Missouri has asked all possible assistance.

In Up to McGrath

Mr. Truman was asked whether he considers this a federal matter and whether he will ask McGrath to send the F.B.I. into the Kansas City inquiry.

That, Mr. Truman said, is a matter for the attorney general to determine. It was then that he said the grand jury in Kansas City was called by the attorney general at the President's suggestion.

Then, to an inquiry as to the scope of the investigation, Mr. Truman said the scope was to get to the bottom of nation-wide racketeering if possible. He said they are not confined to Kansas City but operate in St. Louis and, if he's not mistaken, even in Washington.

Asked whether he meant the racket inquiry to be national in scope, the President replied that's right.

Nationwide racketeers would be a target of the proposed Senate crime inquiry.

The dispute over the probe flared up when Democrats proposed setting up a five man special committee to handle it. Republican Senate leaders decided to fight the move.

Strike Is Threatened

New York, April 13 (AP)—President Michael Quill of the C.I.O. Transport Union Workers today threatened a general strike on the city's transit system if the board of transportation "continues to push us around."

The union already has called a half-day stoppage for Monday in protest against the board's program of downgrading motormen who fail to meet physical qualifications. Quill voiced his general strike threat at an open-air meeting of 600 maintenance workers, many of whom cheered his announcement.

Support Is Narrowed

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The government narrowed the field of its farm price support operations today by announcing that it will no longer maintain a floor under the market for chickens and turkeys.

The department previously had dropped dry peas and American-Egyptian cotton from the government price support list. Commodities on which a support decision for 1950 production still is to be made include soy beans, rice, oats, barley and grain sorghums.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The position of the treasury April 11: Net budget receipts $49,726,241.29. Budget expenditures $120,725,143.42. Cash balance $5,939,274,020.75. Customs receipts for month $12,723,518.68. Budget receipts fiscal year July 1 $29,410,749,561.43. Budget expenditures fiscal year $30,962,879,319.07. Budget deficit $1,552,129,757.64. President Takes Slap At Senator

Chief Executive Says Direct Quotes Are Permissible; Indirect Rap at Taft

2nd Witness Cited

Another Past Member of Communists May Be Called

Washington, April 13 (AP)—In a new blast at Senator McCarthy, President Truman today questioned whether it is possible to libel the Wisconsin Republican.

Mr. Truman's remarks came at a news conference when he was asked about a recent statement by Senator Taft (R.-Ohio).

Taft had said the President libeled McCarthy by cracking at Key West, Fla., recently that McCarthy was the Kremlin's biggest asset in the United States.

"Do you think that's possible?" Mr. Truman fired back at his questioner.

And he said it was all right to use direct quotations.

Mr. Truman went on to say he hadn't read all that Taft had said; that he doesn't read all the political columns of all the people running for re-election.

Taft made his statement about Mr. Truman, McCarthy and libel in a column he distributes to Ohio newspapers.

Taft is up for re-election this year, Mr. Truman noted. He added that he thinks the Ohio senator is interested in something else a couple of years from now.

The Ohio senator is frequently mentioned as a possible G.O.P. presidential candidate in 1952.

Mr. Truman's original blast at McCarthy was in defense of the State Department from the senator's charges that it harbors Communists and their sympathizers.

A Senate foreign relations subcommittee is investigating the charges and next week is to hear testimony from Louis Budenz, former Communist leader who repudiated his affiliation with the party.

There are reports that another witness, also described as a former Communist, may be called.

Talked to Witness

McCarthy's investigators were reported to have talked to the prospective witness, but there was no indication what bearing he might have on the senator's accusation that Lattimore is a top Soviet spy in this country.

Lattimore has vigorously denied the accusation.

Budenz, once a Communist and now a Fordham University professor, is McCarthy's key witness in the case. Budenz is to testify next Thursday before a Senate foreign relations subcommittee looking into McCarthy's general charges of communism in the State Department.

The furor created by those charges was heightened yesterday by a clash between Chairman Tydings (D.-Md.) of the inquiry group and Senator Lodge (R.-Mass.), one of its members.

The dispute erupted when Tydings said he was holding up the appointment of Frederick Ayer, Jr., of Wenham, Mass., as an assistant on the inquiry group's staff. Lodge had suggested Ayer for the job.

Tydings said he noted because Ayer is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Attorney General in Massachusetts. "I do not believe that candidates for office, either Democrats or Republicans, should serve as members of our staff," the Maryland senator said.

Lodge shot back that Tydings had had three weeks to look into Ayer's record, adding that the action was a "gross discourtesy and injustice" to Ayer.

May Go To Committee

The name of the mystery witness, possibly along with one or two others, may be given to the committee by McCarthy in response to a demand that he furnish the group by Monday all of the evidence he has to support his Communist charges against the State Department.

Democratic members indicated privately they want to close the book on the accusation phases of McCarthy's cases then.

The Democrats are known to have discussed the possibility of

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
New York, April 13 (AP) — A score of business leaders reporting to stockholders push back the curtain and take a look at the second half of 1950.

Their guesses on what's ahead for their own companies vary from "business will continue at theoretical capacity" to "retrenchment is in order."

Their predictions for business as a whole vary from "no let-down in the second half" to "the next major movement is likely to be downward."

Let's look at some of these predictions, industry by industry.

1. Steel, Chairman Eugene G. Grace tells Bethlehem Steel stockholders at Wilmington, Del.: "Business at present is running over theoretical capacity and I see nothing to indicate this won't continue for some time."

Chairman Joseph H. Carter tells Pittsburgh Steel stockholders at Pittsburgh: Earnings are running ahead of last year, "a good period of operations is expected through the second quarter," and the future is "bright."

2. Oil. President William F. Humphrey in his annual report to stockholders of Tide Water Associated Oil Co. says: "Price cutting is threatened in some sections of the country" and "sound business judgment would dictate caution or retrenchment, even in drilling," and he urges a moratorium on oil drilling by the whole industry, if possible within the law.

May Force Price Out
Reese H. Taylor, president of Union Oil Co. of California, tells the annual meeting in Los Angeles that west coast oil prices may have to come down and production be further cut because of an oversupply of oil there.

D. J. Smith, president of Pan American Petroleum & Transport Co., tells stockholders that earnings, below last year in the first quarter, should rise to equal last year's by the second quarter, and climb above last year's in the second half of 1950.

3. Railroads. P. W. Johnston, president of Erie Railroad, tells the annual meeting here: Gross revenues this year should be slightly above last year, and earnings are a little better than last year.

4. Airlines. W. A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines, tells stockholders in Chicago that passenger traffic is improving and the company's net loss is running behind last year.

5. Radio, television and records. Chairman Edward J. Noble tells American Broadcasting Co. stockholders here the company is making a profit now, compared with a loss at this time last year, and he sees considerable improvement in television revenues ahead.

Allen B. duMont Laboratories' sales are higher than last year, President Allen B. duMont says in his annual report, and he predicts television will reach new heights this year.

Decca Records' profits are better than last year, President Milton R. Rackmil tells the annual meeting here, and "business is holding up fairly well."

Other Reports
And here are some other reports: Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator's sales and profits are "considerably ahead of last year," Brison Wood, company treasurer reports.

Kerberly - Clark stockholders meeting in Neenah, Wis., are told by President Coia G. Patker, that the lumber company's profits are sharply up from last year.

Pepsi-Cola's net profits are lower than last year, President Alfred N. Steele says in his annual report, but the company plans "an extensive job of rehabilitating profit-producing markets."

Union Bag & Paper Company's president, Alexander Calder, tells a stockholders meeting in Jersey

City that he expects some softening later this year in the current high demand for paper products, which lifted first quarter earnings above last year's.

President R. M. Kant tells Hamilton Watch Co. stockholders at Lancaster, Pa.: The "watch market continues to be in a badly unsettled condition—plagued with a continuous epidemic of distress sales of off-brand imported watches of doubtful quality."

As for business in general, here are two contrasting views: R. J. Cordner, executive vice president of General Electric, says company does not foresee any let-up in the second half of 1950, as some have predicted.

Roy L. Reiderman, vice president of the Bankers Trust Co. in New York, says the next major movement in production and business activity is likely to be downward. As he sees it, "The key industries of our economy will gradually have to reduce their output to a replacement basis or stop now demands."

U. S. Will Select Unknown Soldier Of World War 2

Washington, April 13 (AP) — An American serviceman resting in an unmarked grave somewhere overseas will be picked next year to be entombed in Arlington National Cemetery as the "Unknown Soldier" of World War 2.

He may be a soldier, sailor, marine, coastguardsman or airman, white or Negro, Protestant, Catholic or Jew. But he must be one of the 8,000 unidentified American dead of the last war—buried now on foreign soil.

The final selection will be made at Independence Hall in Philadelphia on the morning of May 28, 1951. The body, to be picked from among six, will be enshrined beside the remains of the unknown soldier of World War 1, as ordered by Congress.

Elaborate precautions will be taken to insure that the unknown serviceman of World War 2 is actually unidentified. This is the procedure outlined yesterday in a Defense Department announcement.

Each of the 8,000 unidentified bodies will be given a code number. The numbers will be placed in capsules, and the capsules divided into 16 containers—one for each U. S. military cemetery abroad. From each container one "principal unknown" and five "alternates" will be drawn.

Then, from the Alaskan command and each of the five overseas theaters—Europe, the Mediterranean, Africa-Middle East, West Pacific and Mid-Pacific—one body will be selected for removal to Philadelphia.

The name of the person who will make the final selection in Philadelphia has not been identified. As soon as the choice has been made, the other five bodies will be returned overseas for reburial.

The unknown will lie in state in the rotunda of the Capitol in Washington. On May 30, Memorial Day, the remains will be entombed in Arlington.

Moose Delays the Mail

West Glacier, Mont. (AP)—A big bull moose proved he could block the U. S. mail for 23 hours here recently—but got a fatal bullet for his trouble. Mail carrier Ralph Day, who was en route to West Glacier National Park when he tried to get through to Polebridge with a load of letters. The road was one way between deep snowbanks and the moose had no trouble preventing Day's advance—as a damaged radiator grill proved. Day retreated to a telephone and called for help from park rangers. They tried shooting rifles into the air but the moose was unimpressed and darkness halted the argument. Next morning, the persistent critter still held the road. More bullets and buckshot were wasted in the air. Finally, a ranger had to put a finishing slug into the animal to get the mail through. The moose was just as recalcitrant after death when its meat proved too tough and stringy for use on a hospital menu or school lunch program.

It Was the Cat's Meow

Rock Island, Ill. (AP)—The Ben Andlich family thought they were hearing things. And they were—faint meows. It went on like that for two days. Then members of the Humane Society ripped out a section of a porch ceiling. Out came Blackie, a kitten owned by a neighbor.

In bridge, as in any competition, defeat that appears to be inevitable may be turned into victory by the player who never gives up. If you do not become discouraged when the outlook is dark, you have a much better chance of finding a way out of your difficulties.

In today's hand, played at a game contract in hearts, it was easy enough for declarer to count eight tricks, but it required something more than counting to unearth the other two.

After winning the first trick with the ace of clubs, West shifted to the king of diamonds, which declarer refused to win. In an effort to avoid leading into the ace-jack in declarer's hand, West abandoned the diamonds and led his other club, which was won in dummy with the king.

Declarer cashed dummy's king of hearts and won the next trick in his own hand with the jack of hearts. The ace of diamonds was cashed and a heart led to dummy's queen, which exhausted the adverse trump.

Dummy's last diamond was led and ruffed by declarer, then East was put in the lead with a club, and was forced to return a spade. As a result, declarer lost no spades, and gave up only two clubs and one diamond.

by SOPHIE MILLER

The scrap book owned by Raphael Cohen of Albany avenue is illustrated with newspaper pictures as well as news items. One is dated March 3, 1885, called "Inauguration, from George Washington to Grover Cleveland," and reads in part: "All the presidents of the United States, or rather all those who came to be president by election to that office, have been inaugurated on either the 4th or 5th of March, except Washington, who was inaugurated the first time on April 30th, 1789. The day fixed by the Continental Congress at its last session under the Confederation was the first Wednesday in March."

"Washington was dressed in a suit of American-made brown woolen cloth, powdered wig tied behind with a black ribbon, white silk stockings, and shoes on which were silver buckles. He carried at his side a dress sword. On a table was a cushion covered with crimson velvet, on which rested an open Bible. Washington stepped to the front of the balcony, with his right hand on his heart and bowed low to the people, then turned to Chancellor Livingston, of the New York Supreme Court, and repeated after him the oath of office. Secretary Olin, of the Senate, then held up the open Bible, which Washington stopped and kissed saying: 'I swear so help me God.' Chancellor Livingston then said: 'Long live George Washington, President of the United States!' Thereupon the people shouted, a salute of artillery was fired and bells rang out all over the city. Washington again advanced to the balcony, bowed low to the people and led the way to the Senate Chamber where he delivered his inaugural address. That done, he went on foot, attended by all the people, to St. Paul's Church, and he and others joined with an Episcopal Bishop in the recital of prayers prepared expressly for the occasion. That evening there was a general illumination throughout the city and a display of fireworks."

The only daily paper then published in New York "The Gazette" referred to the inauguration in the following complimentary strain on its issue of May 1, 1789: "Yesterday, the great and illustrious Washington, the favorite son of liberty and deliverer of his country, entered upon the execution of the office of the first Magistrate of the United States of America, to which important station he had been unanimously called by the united voice of the people. The ceremony which took place on the occasion was truly grand and pleasing."

Details are given of all the inaugurations up to Cleveland in very fine print and some partly destroyed by age and wear and tear. "The inauguration of John

Adams, March 4th, 1797, also took place at Independence Hall, in Philadelphia. The ceremony occurred in the House of Representatives. It is said the hall was almost filled with ladies, to the exclusion of even some of the members of Congress. Mr. Adams first read his address and then took the oath, which was administered to him by Chief Justice Ellsworth, of the United States Supreme Court. This was the first time a President delivered his inaugural address before he took the oath of office. Washington was present, which added importance to the occasion. In a letter to his wife written the day after, Mr. Adams said in part: "I thought I heard Washington say: 'Aye, I am fairly out, and you are fairly in. See which of us will be happiest.'"

Weather Studied
Perth, Australia (AP)—France is planning to build a huge air base at Kerguelen Island in the far south of the Indian Ocean. The island is 2500 miles southwest of Perth, and 250 miles from Heard Island, where Australia has set up an Antarctic base and weather station. South Africa also had a station at Marion, another island in the southern Indian Ocean. The French are rapidly approaching, he said, when forecasts from Heard will be used to predict Australian weather.

other at the Melbourne Headquarters of the Australian Antarctic expedition, told newsmen work at Heard is past the experimental stage. "The time is rapidly approaching, he said, when forecasts from Heard will be used to predict Australian weather."

INSIDE U.S.A. these 2 big extras make CLOROX first!

1 Gentler bleaching action.....

added protection for linens! This young lady enjoys bed linens that are snowy-white, sanitary, too! That's because Mommy, like millions of others, launders white and color-fast cottons and linens with Clorox, which combines germ-killing power with bleaching and brightening. Best of all, Clorox conserves linens because it's free from caustic, thanks to an exclusive formula protected by U.S. patent!

2 Greater disinfecting efficiency...

added protection for health! You get after bathroom odors, bathroom stains, and bathroom germs all at once when you include Clorox in your routine cleaning. For Clorox deodorizes, removes stains, and disinfects! Nash Offers New Convertible Auto

By DAVID J. WILKIE
(A.P. Automotive Editor)
Detroit, April 13 (AP)—Nash Motors' new Rambler convertible goes on public display tomorrow with a factory-delivered price tag of $1,808.

The price for the new 100-inch wheelbase model includes such extras as radio heater, directional signals and other equipment which Nash says are worth nearly $300. The only additional cost to be paid by the car buyer is for transportation and state and local taxes if any.

Thus Nash introduces the lowest priced convertible model built in the United States. Chevrolet's six-cylinder convertible, without extra equipment, has a factory list of $1,847. Ford's eight-cylinder convertible $1,948 and Plymouth's special deluxe, a six, $1,997.

Like other models in the Nash line, the Rambler has the unitized body and frame construction and front and rear wheels are fully enclosed by streamlined fenders. Front and rear fenders merge with the body to give an unbroken streamlined appearance.

For body protection, a chrome strip of stainless steel, at the base of the fender line, runs the length of the car.

Good Is Shorter

A broad low hood is somewhat shorter than that of other Nash cars. It slopes forward for greater visibility. The radiator grille, of oval shape, has heavy horizontal bars that blend with a massive front bumper.

The fabric top, operated by an electric driving mechanism, tilts in fixed grooves atop the frame. A flexible rear window folds without damage in an removable entirely for driving with the top up.

The new model weighs approximately 2,500 pounds. It stands 59 1/2 inches high and is 15 inches wide in the rear. It is powered with an 82-horsepower six-cylinder overhead engine with a 7.25-to-1 compression ratio. Nash engineers say it will give up to 30 miles to a gallon of gasoline and more when equipped with over-drive.

Over-drive is offered as optional equipment.

For Five Passengers

The Rambler is a five-passenger car. Its interior is eight feet two inches long. The front seat has four feet of horizontal room and the rear seat four feet, five inches. Its overall length is 170 inches, which compares with 201 inches for the Nash Statesman model.

Body styles of the new line eventually will include the convertible, a station wagon, two-door sedan and other models.

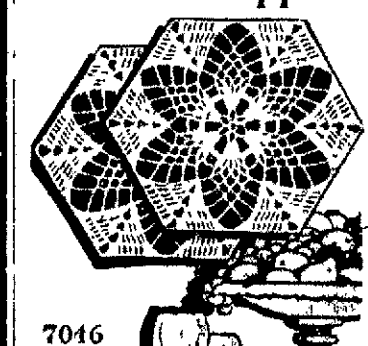

Nash reports the Rambler has been in process of development for more than five years and that an excess of $13,000,000 has been spent in bringing it to the assembly lines.

The company produced approximately 142,600 cars in 1949. With a favorable supply of materials we expect to produce about 45 per cent more Nash cars in 1950, J. C. Doss, vice-president in charge of sales, said today.

Stricter Control Legalized

Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—Stricter state control over publicly and privately operated psychiatric clinics was required today under a bill signed by Governor Dewey. Such clinics must be licensed by the state commissioner of mental hygiene. The new law continues a previous requirement that the State Department of Social Welfare approve the certificates of incorporation of these clinics. Psychiatric clinics operated by the State Departments of Mental Hygiene, Social Welfare, Health and Education are exempt. Existing clinics must apply for the new licenses within 60 days. The law applies to clinics established and maintained by a public body, board, commission, official or by a membership corporation.

As we get older, aches and pains develop. Excessive smoking or exposure to cold can slow down kidney function. If the kidneys are not working properly, the body is unable to eliminate the waste products of metabolism. This leads to a condition known as "acidosis," which causes a variety of symptoms, including backache, stiffness, and general discomfort. The solution is to keep the kidneys healthy by drinking plenty of water, eating a balanced diet, and avoiding excessive smoking and exposure to cold.

School Buses Are To Be Marked in Larger Fashion

Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—School buses will have to display larger identification signs after July 1 under terms of a bill signed today by Governor Dewey.

In addition to flashing red signal lights already required, the new law calls for front and rear signs with the words "school bus" in black letters at least eight inches high on a chrome yellow background.

The sign must be readable from a distance of 200 feet. It must be illuminated if the bus is operated during the period between one-half hour after sunset and one-half hour before sunrise.

Present law requires signs with letters four inches high. It does not specify the inscription.

In a memorandum to Dewey, the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police said:

"In order to properly safeguard the transportation of pupils to and from school it is of the utmost importance that school buses be readily distinguishable from other vehicles."

Most schools have scent glands, but the skunk has carried them to the extreme.

Dewey Acts . . .

man call in Republican leaders for consultation "before" and after decisions in the shaping of policy are made." Bi-partisanship, Dewey said, "cannot be merely a ratification of policies determined by one party."

And a bi-partisan program, he said, should apply in all decisive areas of foreign policy, not merely in those where it is found convenient or politically expedient.

Dewey's bi-partisan planning proposal dominated a 10-point program he suggested as the best way to win the cold war against the Communists.

In the three other points he asked that the nation:

1. End a trend back to isolationism.

2. Not expect miracle cures by telephone calls to Stalin.

3. Reject the notion that war is inevitable.

4. Strengthen its intelligence service.

5. Expend American propaganda abroad.

6. Decide what it wants.

7. Promote European federation.

8. Agree on a Far East policy.

9. Develop the world's backward areas.

But the major danger, Dewey said, is do-nothingness. He said the nation's capital now "conveys the impression of fiddling while freedom burns."

"The U. S., he said, should stop watching continuous Communist successes "with the calm of a Buddha contemplating his navel."

Some Things He Likes

Princeton, N. J., April 13 (AP)—

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, former Republican presidential candidate, says he must admit there are some things he likes about the Democrats.

Dewey, replying to questions put by Princeton University students after his talk here last night on foreign policy matters, said he liked Secretary of State Dean Acheson and was pleased with the government's occupation policies in Germany and Japan.

"But far be it from me to make speeches on behalf of the present administration," Dewey laughed.

Historic House . . .

pany of the house, he discovered a basement room sealed off from the rest of the building. Evidence in the room led to the belief that it was used as a way station for the "underground railway" prior to and during the Civil War period.

Flame additions were added to the original structure at the intervening years.

Johnson, an employee of the New York Telephone Company, is chairman of the board of the commissioners of the Hurley Fire District.

Hurley firemen remained on guard until 6:30 a. m., today to prevent smoldering embers from falling into flames and spreading. The Whitehouse was sent back to Kingston at 3:45 a. m. today.

hling up to get so many aboard the Jensen, the passengers were all smiles. One summed it up: "We're hot, hungry, dirty and happy."

There was no enthusiasm for Shanghai under the Communists. They said about 2,000 more foreigners want to leave Shanghai. Secretary of State Dean Acheson said in Washington yesterday the United States is giving up efforts to get the 2,000 out by sea. The Communists balked at an attempt to ferry them out to the liner Gen. W. H. Gordon. Negotiations to use the British motor vessel Anking fell through Tuesday. Acheson said the U. S. will ask the Reds to permit the foreigners to get out by rail to Hong Kong or Tientsin.

last through the year. He added this long-range qualification:

"We are not getting the expansion in industry and investment that we need to absorb the steady increase in the labor force. That is a serious problem."

The report sent to the joint economic committee of Congress is an array of tables, almost bare of comment. Yet the council obviously took little comfort in last month's drop of 553,000 in the ranks of job-seekers. It ascribed the improvement to the normal, "seasonal" pickup in farming and industry.

At the level of 4,321,000 jobless, unemployment now stands higher than at any time last year, Federal economists do not regard the figure itself as alarming in view of the upward trend of business. As Keynesing indicated, it is the prospect of a slow, year-by-year increase that gives concern.

Rainmaker Takes Off
New York, April 13 (AP)—The city's official rainmaker took off by plane today for the New York watershed, perhaps to try again what he hasn't been able to do yet—make it rain. Dr. Wallace E. Howell, hired at $100 a day to bring rain to the city's reservoirs, said before taking off from the Guardia Field that primarily it was just an exploratory flight. But he took along a little dry ice which he could use to seed cumulus clouds in case he found any. Clear, cold weather was reported in the watershed area.

SPARE THE ROD AND SPOIL THE HOUSE—The testing of a new Westinghouse transformer at Sunnyside, Calif., reduced this argument for lightning rods. The model barn and contents were destroyed for lack of protection. The model barn, right, was none the worse for wear as a 2,400,000-volt bolt passed through the rod to the ground.

blanket. He identified pictures, one of them showing bullet wounds.

Counsel Asks Question
Attempt to introduce one of the shoes of deceased in evidence was halted when John Bonomi, counsel for defense, asked the witness if he could positively identify the shoes as the one found at the scene. Jansen said he looked like the shoe but said he could not say the shoe was positively the one, it was the same make. Objection to offering the shoe in evidence was sustained.

At the noon recess the coat allegedly worn by deceased on the night of the shooting had been offered for identification but Bonomi asked time to examine the coat before making objection.

At the opening of the case District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn stated it would be the prosecution's attempt to show that Ruth Bergemann was shot and killed under circumstances which constituted murder in the first degree, and that Theodore Lutzel killed her.

In his opening Bonomi stated the element of motive could not be shown and he said the defendant would take the stand in his own behalf and show positively that he did not commit a murder. He did not disclose the line of defense which would be followed.

Opportunity to examine prosecution photographs was sought by Bonomi who also asked that he be given an opportunity to examine any bullets which prosecution had, clothing exhibits and also the Bergemann car. He asked the district attorney to permit him to examine the gun which it is alleged was used in the shooting as well as any and all statements which Lutzel is purported to have given since the shooting. Motions to examine photographs were denied as was the motion to examine statements made by Lutzel, and clothing which might be offered in evidence. As to examination of any bullet, Judge Cushman said the court direct the jury to accept any qualified ballistics expert.

Bruhn said he would be glad to allow examination of the gun which it is alleged was used but he did not have the gun. It never has been recovered. The car has been turned back to the family and Mr. Bruhn said he had no control over it. Bonomi asked that the court direct the jury to produce the car. Denied. During a portion of the motions the jury was excluded from the room.

All witnesses have been excluded from the court room until after they have testified. They are called in one at a time when called to testify.

Miss Daley Appears
Miss W. E. Daley, proprietor of The Well at Rosendale, testified she knew both Lutzel and Ruth Bergemann. They had been at The Well on November 26 but had left around midnight. They were in the bar and she was in the dining room. She heard no conversation. She saw they leave, said goodnight and at the time they both appeared in good spirits.

Edward Keast, Unadilla, bartender at The Well testified he heard Ruth Bergemann say to Lutzel that evening that she had spent 8 months trying to make a man of him and had given it up as a bad job. This was around 9:30 or 10:30. Lutzel replied he guessed it was best to go back to New York and forget the whole thing. After this they left to go to a dance, but returned again around 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning. They were both sober. When they left Lutzel offered to ride along with Ruth Bergemann to her home but Keast said she said she was tired, wanted to go home only as she promised her folks, and would go home alone.

On cross examination Keast said there appeared to be no trouble between them. He said he did not hear Lutzel say early in the evening that he was going to call his mother in Brooklyn and return there next day. He said Lutzel had accompanied him to the Bergemann farm that same week to get the court direct the jury to produce the car. Denied. During a portion of the motions the jury was excluded from the room.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 13 (AP)—An advancing stock market stopped dead in its tracks today after reaching a new 3½-year high.

Gains of fractions to around a point were scored in a few minutes of rapid-fire trading at the opening. Orders flooded into the exchange and for a couple of minutes the ticker tape lagged in reporting transactions on the trading floor.

The rush of demand at the start was evidently a spillover from yesterday when prices on average touched their best mark since August 1936.

Profit taking sales quickly developed in sufficient volume to block further improvement. All or most of the gains were maintained as lively trading continued.

Chrysler Corp., a strong spot yesterday, showed fresh strength, apparently on prospects for immediate settlement of a strike now well into its third month.

Others ahead included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Douglas Aircraft, Lockheed, Schenley, Adair, Corp., General Motors, Motorola, American Telephone, Consolidated Natural Gas, Kennecott Copper, Alaska Juneau, Allied Chemical, Dow Chemical, du Pont, General Electric, Childs Co., N. Y. Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Nickel Plate, Skelly Oil, and Johnson-Warner.

Missouri Pacific obligations were in demand in the corporate bond market. U. S. Government, particularly in the distant market.

Truman Doubts

Issuing a statement setting forth the record of McCarthy's charges and contending that he has failed to give the group any documentary evidence to back them up.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters he thinks the committee would be getting off on the wrong foot if it took such action.

"It's the committee's responsibility to dig up the evidence," Taft said. "The President has denied the committee the files from which it could obtain the leads it needs to check up on Senator McCarthy's charges."

When reporters noted that the President has contended that to open the files to the committee might disclose F.B.I. sources of information, Taft said that might be true in some cases. But he added:

"What good are the files if nobody can use them?"

Chairman Connally (D-N.Y.) of the full Foreign Relations Committee predicted that the Senate itself will have to decide in the end what—if anything—to do about the President's refusal to open the records.

MT. TREMPER

Mr. Tremper, April 13—During the Easter service at the Reformed Church, Sandra and Robert, children of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Peters, were christened by the Rev. Harvey Todd, pastor of the church. On the church altar were Easter lilies and other flowers sent by Miss Louise Cockburn in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Cockburn and in memory of J. Every from Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Every.

Mrs. Mary Miller of Quarryville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gustafson.

Mrs. Charles Gustafson has reported that $73.78 was collected during the recent Red Cross drive.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet with Mrs. Francis Phillips at her home Tuesday afternoon, April 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCarthy of New Rochelle spent the week-end at their home here.

Mrs. Nellie Hinsdale and daughter, Margaret and son, Billy of Kingston, spent Easter with Mrs. Loren Buley.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schlegel visited their summer place during the week-end. They recently returned from Palm Beach, Fla., where they spent the winter.

Mrs. Burton Gardner and daughter, Morrie Tazelaar and Miss Carol M. Gardner of Long Island, are spending the Easter week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schoen and family have returned after spending several days with relatives in New York and New Jersey.

There will be no church services Sunday, April 16, as the pastor will be away.

About the Folks
The condition of City Engineer Arthur F. Hallinan, who is undergoing treatment for pneumonia at the Benedictine Hospital, was reported as "slightly improved" today. He was admitted to the hospital Tuesday.

12:30 that night but had no conversation. Wilmet Parker, Blinewater, bartender at The Chalet said he saw Lutzel and Ruth there at the bar around 12:50 or 12:55. They had a beer and hamburger and left. While they were there Lutzel asked the chef to have a drink. The chef replied that since it was nearly quitting time he would take a drink. That fixed in the witnesses' mind that it was 12:55 a. m. They left at about 1:30. Lutzel did not finish his hamburger and when asked why said he did not feel well. Both were sober the witness said.

changing from coal burning locomotives to Diesel engines.

In West Virginia, where 11,000 miners earn their living in the pits, unemployment is up to an estimated 6,000 among diggers in the state's southern fields.

Unemployment and mine closings have touched Pennsylvania lately so far but coal industry spokesmen look for heavy effects in coming months.

Local Cemetery To Observe Its 100th Anniversary

"The Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Association of the Town of Kingston" was organized on July 9, 1850 and will this year observe its 100th anniversary. As a part of the observance of the organization, the New York State Cemetery Association will hold its convention here in July. Wiltwyck Cemetery will be used as the demonstration grounds.

The annual meeting of the trustees was held Monday evening at the Suyvesant Hotel with a dinner for the trustees and officers to commemorate the founding of the association 100 years ago.

Officers and trustees now serving the association are: A. H. Chambers, president and trustee, James H. Botts, vice-president and trustee, Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary-treasurer and trustee, A. R. Atkins, Charles de la Vergne, Harry S. Ensign, Henry Forst, William C. Kingman and Alexander B. Shufeldt, trustee, John Ferguson is superintendent.

The original organization of "The Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Association of the Town of Kingston" took place on July 9, 1850 when a certificate of organization was prepared and filed.

This original certificate of organization was drawn up at a meeting of the citizens of Kingston held at Schryver's Hotel for the purpose of forming a cemetery association under the Legislative Act of April 27, 1847.

The certificate of organization and minutes of the meeting, after reciting the purpose of the meeting, continue:

"The following persons were present: Joseph Smith, Philip V. D. Lockwood, Abijah Smith, Nathaniel Booth, Sterling Smith, George W. Dunn, Edwin Smith, Benj. T. Tenney and John H. Schryver. The meeting was organized by calling Joseph S. Smith to the chair, and appointing Benj. T. Tenney, secretary."

"On motion, it was resolved unanimously that a Cemetery Association be formed under the memorial plants given in memory of Frank DuBois and daughters, Charles Wells by Mrs. Wells; and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rhinehart by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhinehart. Other plants were given by the Ladies Aid and Dutch Circle. These were sent to shut-ins after the service. A special message was given by the pastor and the choir rendered appropriate Easter selections."

act afforded, to be known as the Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Association of the Town of Kingston.

"On motion, it was resolved that the number of Trustees to manage the affairs of said Association shall be twelve.

"The following gentlemen were thereupon elected Trustees by ballot, viz.: Benjamin M. Hasbrouck, Joseph S. Smith, Ezra Fitch, James Wells, Rodney N. Baldwin, Nicholas Elmendorf, Thomas Scott, George North, Abijah Smith, Cornellus H. Van Gasbeck, Edwin Smith, Joseph Chipp, At that time the time of the annual meeting was set for the third Monday of July in each year. The certificate of organization was signed by J. S. Smith, chairman, and B. T. Tenney, secretary, and was acknowledged by John Chipp, a justice of the peace. The certificate was entered and recorded on July 30, 1850 in the county clerk's office with F. D. L. Montanye, deputy clerk, signing the record.

On March 20, 1856 the corporate name was changed to Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Association.

The association controls the large cemetery grounds which extend from Pine Grove avenue along the West Shore railroad for a long distance and also property on West O'Reilly street and in vicinity of the Benedictine Hospital. The older portion of the cemetery lies to the head of Pine Grove avenue and adjacent to the superintendent's house, while the newer portion is that along West O'Reilly street.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

Blanch Will Open
Gotham Exhibition

ARNOLD BLANCH

Woodstock, April 12—“I would rather go trout fishing than paint,” says Arnold Blanch, one of the country's most renowned painters. “But painting has become so much a part of me that I feel guilty, and uncomfortable when I neglect it.”

Blanch, whose work has been exhibited in 23 of his new paintings will be on exhibition Monday, April 17, in the galleries of the Associated American Artists, 711 Fifth Avenue, New York, most of which were done in 1949.

Although Blanch first came to Woodstock after World War I at a time when “most of the young artists lived almost as primitives, a life as our pioneer forefathers,” he now lives and works with his wife, Doris Lee, in one of the village's newest and most distinctive modern homes. From the Saugerties road on which it is situated the long low building, with a somewhat stark pale grey facade, gives little hint of the spaciousness within. The lofty ceilings, the living room and studios, the white picture windows which frame massive Overlook Mountain and the terrace overlooking the view Doris Lee and Blanch designed their home themselves for their own specific requirements, almost an entire wall for books with an ample amount of wall space for their paintings.

Blanch, who studied at the Minneapolis School of Art and the Art Students League, New York, with Moma, Robert Henri and John Sloan, before the first World War. Later he returned to the league after serving with the A.E.F. to study with Miller and Robinson. Since that time he has traveled in Europe, painting in France, Italy and England, taught for one year at the California School of Fine Arts, San Francisco, the Art Students League in New York for four years and for two years at the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center, Summer School. Since 1947 he has been teaching at the Art Students League Summer School in Woodstock.

He has been visiting artist at both the Michigan State College, East Lansing, Mich., and at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn., and this past winter was art advisor at Rollins College in Florida. For the past four years he and Mrs. Blanch have spent their winters in Key West, Fla.

With nine one-man exhibitions to his credit, in New York, San Francisco, Chicago and Minneapolis, Blanch has been the winner of as varied a list of prizes and honors ever given to one artist. Since the year began painting to ceramics and book illustration, they give some indication of the scope of his creative ability. In 1938 he won the Beck Gold Medal given by the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia, Pa., and also in that year was awarded third prize in the Annual Carnegie International Exhibition of Paintings, Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Pa. In the Domesday Press Competition he was selected for the prize in Juvenile Book Illustration in New York and in 1919 he won first prize and two honorable mentions for designs in the National Ceramic Exhibition in the Syracuse Museum of Fine Arts, Syracuse.

Represented in most of the great art museums in this country, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York City, the Cleveland Museum, the Brooklyn Museum and the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C., to name a few, his work is a major influence in the work of young painters today.

“Teaching brings one,” he believes, “a greater contact with young people. Someone once said young people were always talented. To go with talented people is always a privilege. It is also an uncommon privilege to associate with those whose minds are plastic and adventurous, who accept change and variation as an organic part of life. There are times when my liking for teaching becomes a little indulgent. These are the times I have to ask myself how I function best.”

His canvases encompass a wealth of subject matter, a placid Kingston street scene, a huddle of poverty stricken shacks in a desolate Georgia field, the Carolina Low Country, portraits, storm swept landscapes, scenes of circus life and the delightfully whimsical “Doris Conceives Spring.”

Blanch also is the author of several books, among them “Methods and Techniques for Graphic Painting,” published in 1946, and “Painting for Enjoyment,” written in collaboration with Doris Lee and published in 1947. He also has designed Christmas wrapping paper, and numerous ties and scarves, as well as trays, salad bowls and plates and hooked rugs.

In the summer he will go to the middle west for a week to give a group of lectures but will return to the Art Students League for the summer.

Kuniyoshi Show Is Reviewed by Critic

Woodstock, April 12—Yasuo Kuniyoshi is having an exhibition of his paintings at the Downtown Gallery in New York.

“Mr. Kuniyoshi's show,” says Carlyle Burrows, art critic of the New York Herald Tribune in the art section, Sunday, April 9, “is continued to the development his art began to undergo in 1947, and this consists of twelve oils and temperas in a four-years' retrospective. A realist whose style characteristically derives from the Orient, he had for long been known for his figures and compositions of splenic and fanciful form, as his style progressed from a clean and linear expression toward one of fuller substance and romantic color. In his recent work progress has been made in developing human ideas more vigorously and in methods suitable for their dramatization.

“Much in these paintings is symbolically expressed, in contrast to the earlier humanistic compositions, where inspiration was essentially natural and natural. The artist reveals his disillusionment, subtly contrasting a world of memory (‘This Is My Playground’) with a world of impending doom (‘Revelation’) and ‘Carnival.’ The actors on the stage are often the clown, but the clown who is in no mood to act the part. And one of his most telling concepts is shown in ‘Exit,’ where a beaten figure withdraws from the stage, utterly rejected.

“The surprising aspect of all this work is its dramatic envelopment. Not only are the surface colors rendered intensively, but they are higher in key, subtle in variation; and the artist completes his canvas now with comprehensive and animate designs. One must confess to the fact that the artist's sense of tragedy is amplified. But it is a personal note, and a counteractive agent to the tense grimacing moods with which the artist manifests in these pictures his concern for human life.

Shooters to Meet

Woodstock, April 12—The Woodstock Rifle and Pistol Club will meet Thursday, April 13, at the Recreation Field clubhouse at 8 p. m. instead of the Rod and Gun Club as previously announced. The group meets on the second Thursday of every month.

Plans Shows

Woodstock, April 12—Samuel S. Schwartz, of the “Town House” has announced that in the course of the summer he will present seven one-man shows, each of two weeks' duration.

Among Woodstock artists who will be included in the exhibitions are William J. Eisner, Allen D. Cockran, Joseph Presser and Mark Yukovic.

Plans Show

Woodstock, April 13—Jane Jones, Woodstock, is having a one-man show of her paintings at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., which will open on April 13.

Sergey Show

Woodstock, April 13—Fredrick Sergey of Woodstock is having a one-man show of his paintings at the Van Dusen-Lindenfeld Gallery, 21 East 57th street, New York. The show will continue through April 24. Sergey was born in Czechoslovakia and became an American citizen in 1946. His first one-man show was given at the DeYoung Memorial Museum, and he has been awarded numerous prizes.

Local Judges

Woodstock, April 13—Two of the judges in the second annual Newspaper Guild art exhibit at the Guild headquarters in New York on Tuesday, April 4, were Woodstockers, Jack Levine and Marion Greenwood. Exhibiting in the show was Douglas Downie of the New York Post, a recent visitor to Woodstock who won third prize in the amateur class with his painting “Sheridan Square.”

Art Conference

Woodstock, April 13—The Woodstock Artists Association in conjunction with Artists Equity of New York is planning the largest artist conference in the country to be held here some time in August.

Brook Pupils Show

Woodstock, April 13—Woodstock painter, Frank Brock, who was formerly associated with the Adult Education Evening in Ellenville, and is now teaching an art class in Kerhonkson, is having an exhibition of his pupils' work. The show is being held this week at the Indian Valley Inn at Kerhonkson and consists of portraits, landscapes and still lifes.

Roome Exhibit Shows
French Art Influence

Woodstock, April 13—In a group of paintings, water colors and high fashion illustrations now on display at the “St. Peter's House,” Louise Caldwell Roome demonstrates a skillful handling of all of her mediums and a variety of subject matter. Mrs. Roome, who has studied in France, shows a strong influence of the French painters in her subtle handling of color and delicate simplicity of line.

While the “Green House” is one of the most striking of her paintings, which was loaned for the exhibit by Mrs. Margaret Kenyon, the most interesting perhaps is the group painted in and around Cape May, not only for their picture content but for the aura of banished elegance she has given these old seaside mansions at Lands End most of which have now been swept into the sea by the encroaching tide. One of the rambling old houses was the summer home of John Wannamaker. Also in the Cape May group is a charming study of a small rather old little church which was originally built for the Lithuanian Exhibit in the Philadelphia Centennial many years ago. Later it was bought by the Episcopalians and moved to Cape May Point where it now stands and is the subject of Mrs. Roome's “St. Peter's by the Sea.”

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

New York, (AP)—What convinces me that women are superior to men is their ability to enjoy a brief illness.

For years I have known that women, pound for pound, are better looking than men, wiser, more durable of purpose, and less susceptible to bankruptcy.

But it is their resilience of spirit, under the test of illness that shows how much better adjusted they are to life, how much more adaptable to strain, than the patriarchy.

The truth of this distinction between the sexes dawned upon me during the last two days. I spent them in bed, racked by a severe cold and fever, incidentally to the departure of winter and the arrival of spring.

Let a transitory germ get a half-nelson on me, and I always fear the worst. I am not wholly a coward, but I have a dread of expiring miserably in bed with my shoes off, like a chair-strapped general, or a prostrate woman alone, to meet the more romantic to tumble from a roller coaster and die of a fractured skull. Fractured skulls run in my family anyway.

Begin to Grow
And so, when I awoke the other morning and saw more than the usual number of spots before my eyes, I began to groan and call for my life insurance policies.

This has always been my standard way of dealing with illness—to check my insurance, pull down the shades and lie in bed groaning and letting my beard grow. When the whiskers start scratching out the neighbors begin complaining about my caterwauling. I am usually strong enough to get up and go back to work.

But I found I could no longer groan in my own home. Strange noises disturb the maid, and it was time to come.

"Here, Rover, quit acting like a dumb animal," said my wife, Frances, sticking a thermometer into my mouth.

It was useless for me to protest that I didn't want any food, medicine, sympathy or marigolds in my den of despair. You can't cheat a good wife out of the fun of nursing her husband. It is the only time she has him completely under her will.

"The trouble with you men," said Frances, plumping up the pillow, "is that you don't get any rest or pleasure out of being sick."

And that is true. Our conscience won't let us.

It's a Game to Women

But women are too sensible to let a small illness amuse them. They make a game of it, so far as they can. They keep their faces prettied up; they wear a fancy bed jacket; they love flowers and more flowers in the room; they leave their innards with fling sauce and shade, they keep the radio going and the telephone handy. And they don't take the same old bedpan-white pills I always get. They relish all kinds of rainbow-colored medicines.

When they do rise at last, they don't feel shaky-legged or guilty or mad at their own weakness. They are refreshed and renewed, ready to get a new hair-do or go dancing.

Well, this time I did everything Frances said. In fact, I relaxed so much that finally she said suspiciously, "I do believe you are enjoying yourself. It's time you got up and started earning me a living again."

And, to tell the truth, the thought was revolting. I'd have preferred to stay in bed, admiring my toes and being waited on—even at the price of two throat swabs a day.

Would Rather Stay

There's the rub. A woman recovers from a mild illness when she gets bored and decides she'd rather be up and doing something else. But if a man ever really falls in love with a gentle complaint, he may never want to go back to office or factory.

No, it's too dangerous. Follows this discovery that half the fun of any illness is to enjoy it. Lacking feminine will power, we just can't afford to pet ourselves. At least I can't—not with an old age pension 26 years away.

But the day that first retirement check arrives, I'm going to make up for all my wasted years of aches and pains. I'm going to crawl into bed with a medical dictionary and enjoy to the hilt every disease in it, page by page—and in comfort.

No More Cuts Planned In Housing Forces

New York, April 12 (AP)—Staff cuts by the regional office of the federal housing expediter are at an end.

Regional Director John J. Pendegast said yesterday there will be no new reductions beyond those already announced.

In New York state—where a new state rent control law will supplant federal rules on May 7—700 employees in 13 rent offices have been given notice of layoff. The regional office will continue to administer the federal law in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware. Offices in these states have 412 workers.

Of the 700 being dropped in New York state, 521 are in New York city. The others have been employed in offices in Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, Poughkeepsie, Rochester, Syracuse, Watertown and White Plains.

Malaya to Fight Corruption

Kuala Lumpur, Malaya (AP)—Freedom-bent Malaya is out to rid the country of corruption, widespread among its government officers. Its legislative council has passed a bill to achieve this. Bribery now is a non-sensational offense. Police have no special powers for investigation. The court is denied the opportunity to hear certain evidence. The new bill removes these obstacles. It gives government the power to order inspection of bank books and provides for heavier fines and longer terms of imprisonment.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Organization, under consideration in a special session of the General Assembly.

He contended that it "recks of incompetence, or is a deliberate attempt to misrepresent" insofar as it sought to conceal attempts to concentrate power in the office of governor.

He asserted, too, that experts who had investigated the state's purchasing for the commission had turned in an "incompetent report." It was so bad, he said, that he would junk a student who did a similar job.

A thrill to be remembered

... your long distance call

There's no better way to show the folks back home that you are still thinking about them than a long distance call. A call from you will be a thrill they'll remember and cherish for days to come.

Why not pick up the phone tonight and ask the operator to ring them for you? It usually takes about a minute for a long distance call to go through — and then you'll be giving the folks you call the time of their lives.

Look at the rates below and see how little it costs to call.

How to telephone out of town at bargain rates:

First, use the fast, low-cost Station-to-Station service—which means you will talk to anyone who answers your call.

Secondly, take advantage of low night and Sunday rates, generally in effect from 6 p. m. to 4:30 a. m. weekdays and all day Sunday.

It costs so little to call—

C. of C. Seeking 500 Members in Drive This Year

The entire Kingston Chamber of Commerce board of directors will serve as a membership committee in the forthcoming campaign. This decision was reached at a well-attended meeting of the directors Tuesday night at which President Robert E. Teetsel presided. The membership year starts on May 1, when renewed statements and letters to prospective members will be mailed. Teetsel pointed out that the 1949-50 Chamber membership is 438, the highest since 1947, but that at least 500 members are needed to carry out the 1950-51 program. "Every effort will be made to increase the number of members to make it possible to further expand the Chamber program," Teetsel said. All memberships received now will not expire until May 1, 1951.

Committee reports indicated a great deal of Chamber activity.

The convention committee reported that 394 letters have been written to Women's Bowling Teams all over the state in connection with housing accommodations. It was also reported that more than 100 available rooms have not been used thus far. The month of May will be the most active and more convention visitors will come to Kingston than in any previous month.

It was reported that progress is being made in connection with the desire of the Hudson River highway to extend its operations north to Kingston. The board instructed Secretary Kurtz to do everything possible to bring about this additional means of transportation.

The retail merchants committee reported that a shopping survey will be conducted this spring and that the State Department of Commerce will assist in tabulating the results. The traffic and transportation committee had several meetings and conferred with Mayor Oscar V. Newdick on plans to detour traffic in connection with the Broadway crossing elimination.

The progress made by the Colonial City Baseball Club was discussed and the secretary was authorized to continue to assist in the promotion of the club, now locally owned and controlled, in every possible way if requested to do so, but not in any official capacity.

A resolution was adopted thanking the Lions Club for the space made available to the Chamber of Commerce at the recent exposition for an exhibit promoting local established industries.

Directors present at the meeting Tuesday night were Chester A. Balz, Jr., Emil G. Boessneck, Pratt Boice, J. Ellis Briggs, James P. Byrne, Eugene Carey, Byron S. Chatham, Joseph Desigan, Frederick J. K. Eitel, Raymond W. Garaghan, Addison Jones, Adrian Kaplan, Lawrence J. MacAvoy, Clifford C. Rose, Victor H. Roth, Elmer Blyskal, George W. Schneider, Henry Singer, Edwin T. Strong, and Robert E. Teetsel. Teetsel stated that this was the best attendance of directors at any meeting during the past two years.

Maryland placed the Baltimore Oriole under protection in 1882.

Not Restricted
A presidential election does not have to vote for the official candidate of his party. The Constitution specifies that each state select its own electors, who then are free to vote for anyone they choose. However, it is the usual practice for electors to vote for their party's official candidate.

Joseph Smith, first president of the Latter-day Saints (Mormon) church, was born at Hiram, N.Y., in 1806.

Disease Campaign
To Start in Haiti

New York, April 13 (AP)—The first campaign in world history to free a whole nation from venereal disease by treating each citizen with penicillin is reported ready to start this month in Haiti.

It will take two years, at least $750,000. It also will force medical teams to travel by jeep and horseback into Haiti's mountains to reach each one of the island republic's 3,500,000 persons.

The project was announced yesterday by Dr. Jaime Veldard-Thorne of the United Nations World Health Organization (WHO).

Doctors estimate that one out of every four Haitians has either syphilis or gonorrhea, and that 85 per cent of them suffer from yaws, a skin disease with some resemblances to syphilis.

Penicillin is effective against all three in most cases.

The project is being sponsored by the Haitian government and two United Nations agencies, the WHO, and the International Children's Emergency Fund.

Before it is complete, similar campaigns will be launched in Indonesia and, on a smaller scale, in the Dominican Republic, which shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti.

Bixbys End Flight

San Francisco, April 13 (AP)—The Flying Bixbys completed their globe girdling flight today—10 days behind schedule. They landed here, their April 1 takeoff point, at 3:06 a. m. They had hoped to shatter the late Bill Odom's world circling record of 73 hours, five minutes, 11 seconds. But engine trouble near Calcutta smashed that dream. Magneto trouble at Tokyo forced a second delay.

200 Ride Trail,
Swing Lariats at
Horse Set Party

According to custom, the Kingston Horsemen's Association enjoyed its annual dinner Wednesday evening, when more than 200 members and friends gathered to renew acquaintances and swap stories of bygone days when the horse was more popular than in these times of autos, planes and other speedier means of conveyance.

There wasn't one mention of rocket ships, speedboats or cars. Last night it was all horse, except the piece de resistance. That was juicy tender steak served by the host, Al Owens, the proprietor at Schoentag's whose first experience with beef was as a professional football player with the Giants.

President Harry B. Walker, former mayor of Kingston, was busy meeting and greeting the guests as they arrived and by mealtime his right arm was ready for a sling. "Looks like I'll have to eat with my left," said the "lanch boss" of the association.

There was plenty of friendly mingling from early in the evening until the clock struck a wee hour, and there was ridin' aplenty, even if it was along the conversation trail.

Some of the boys even got to do a bit of ropin' until Jim McCabe cautioned that the imaginary lariats might break the lights. "Yes, save that for a horse show we might promote soon," advised Sgt. John Roosa who has been in them from the county fair type up to the big 'un at Madison Square Garden.

As the gathering sat to eat, President Walker shook his head in amazement. He remarked, "what a fine turnout of horsemen."

"You mean horse men," quipped Lizzie Epstein. "Some of these guys have never even straddled a merry-go-round pony."

"Don't look at me," snapped Zeke Boss, local painter, who proved he is interested in the horse set by a picture in his wallet. "Sure enough," laughed Doc Lowry. "There he is, perched on Dynamite, the rodeo horse."

But when Bert Chambers took a more inquisitive squint, he raised the question whether Boss was interested in the "hoss" or a rodeo queen whose dainty hand clasped Dynamite's bridle.

Aside from the horsplay, it was no synthetic party as far as interest in horsemanship went. There were riders present in cowboy regalia, and nobody knew what minute Gene Autry or Hopalong Cassidy might drop in on the party. And, good hard riders from this area stood out in the dinner gathering—fellows like Joe Bosch, Ferd Gildersleeve, John Roosa, and a host of others who appear in local parades and at horse shows in the area.

Horsemen from the surrounding countryside were present. From Ellenville came Dr. McCartney, Vernon Thornton, Eckert Schupp, John Sanderson, William Martin, Lawrence O'Neal and Louis Brooks.

Rhinebeck's delegation was made up of William Foster, Sam Lloyd, Frank Cookingham, Joe Ruge, Harry Cotting, O. T. Yeager, Fred Cutting, Pete Sipperly, Frank Kalmorakie, Ray Seignor and James Saxton.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk topped a list of civic leaders from Kingston, including Police Chief Ray Van Buren, Postmaster William Kraft, Alderman-at-Large Joe Kelly and others.

A minute of silence was observed prior to the dinner in memory of Elmer Pelen who was president of the association until his death last year.

Blast Injures Student

Cambridge, Mass., April 13 (AP)—A home-made bomb exploded on a window sill of Harvard University's Thayer Hall early today. The blast injured one student, endangered others and threw 150 freshmen in an uproar. It shattered more than a score of panes of glass and blew out a window frame. Robert Dobble, 21, of Allentown, Pa., suffered facial lacerations when the window of his first floor room crashed in. The bomb apparently was made of dynamite. Yard Police Chief Alvin Randall said he believed it was the work of pranksters.

Establishment Approved

Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—Establishment of the Sackett Lake sewer district in the town of Thompson, Sullivan county, was approved today by the state comptroller. The maximum cost was set at $200,000. Comptroller Frank C. Moore said the proposed district would serve a summer resort area in the vicinity of Sackett Lake where, he asserted, "sewage disposal facilities are poor and waters have been polluted." The State Health Department also supported establishment of the district.

Dog Bites Child

William Terwilliger, 426 Washington avenue, reported to the police at 6:35 p. m. yesterday that his son, William, 7, was bitten on the left leg by a dog.

Rainmaking Case
Is Adjourned in Court to April 21

The motion for a temporary injunction to restrain the City of New York from proceeding with its artificial rainmaking experiments over the Catskills, filed by Ben J. Slutsky of Ellenville on behalf of resort interests, was adjourned Wednesday in Supreme Court in New York until April 21.

An injunction is being sought to restrain the city from further operations along the rainmaking plan by resort interests who allege the proposed plan would seriously injure and damage the resort business. The injunction is being sought by operators of The Natchez Hotel at Ellenville.

Assistant Corporation Counsel James Thornton said the issues were so novel that it would take the city considerable time to prepare its case.

Rainmaking was again called off Wednesday owing to an absence of seedable clouds over the Catskills.

Movie Is Planned

Cornell Steamboat Company Buys Tug Harry Card

The Cornell Steamboat Company has purchased the Tug Harry Card and has renamed it the Thomas Cornell. It is now in operation in the Rondout creek.

The tug, which was tested by the Cornell Company during its 1949 operations, was built by the Minnetonka Boat Company, City Island, New York in 1944 and is powered with a Diesel engine developing 1,250 h.p. and will be the largest unit operating on the Hudson river.

The purchase of this tug is the first move in a program to replace the company's large steam units with Diesel boats of similar power.

Recently the steam Tug Edwin Terry was fitted with a new boiler.

at the Todd Shipyard Company, Thomas Cornell, after whom the tug is named, established the Cornell Steamboat Company in Rondout about 1837 and it developed into one of the most extensive steam-towing lines in the United States. In 1890, when he died, Cornell was credited with owning more steamboats than any other person in the United States, having purchased other lines on the Hudson river. At one time over 50 steamers were operated and 400 men employed. The company later was incorporated and since has been controlled and conducted by the Cokendall interests.

Marbletown Recreation Application Approved

The New York State Youth Commission has approved the application of the Town of Marbletown for the renewal of the recreation project according to notification sent to Supervisor Richard F. Mack.

The town proposes to spend $1,700 during the year beginning January 1, and the amount of state aid requested as reimbursement is $850.

The agency responsible for the conduct of this program is the Marbletown Recreation Committee of which DeWitt Hasbrouck, Walter Williams and Kenneth Davenport are chairmen. Director of recreation is Robert Ward.

Recreation services are scheduled in six school districts, instruction in arts, music, dancing, swimming, basketball, athletics, sports and playgrounds. Facilities include schools, Stone Ridge Grange Hall, and Lockwood swimming area.

Dozens of cars and trucks wait in line 17 miles west of Grand Forks, N. D., as rotary plows dig at snowdrifts which blocked highway 2. A high wind and six inches of snow blocked seven-foot cuts which had been made through drifts formed by earlier storms. (A.P. Wirephoto)

Marines to Meet
A regular meeting of Ulster County Detachment, Marine Corps League, is scheduled for 7:30 tonight at the home of Joyce-

Schrick Post, 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Delaware avenue. A full turnout of members is requested to nominate a local marine veteran for junior vice commander of the State Detachment.

Excise Tax Cuts Dancing, Shows

New York, April 13 (AP)—The 20 per cent federal excise tax is taking a heavy toll of dancing and floor shows in dinner and supper rooms at New York hotels.

The latest to bow out was the Terrace Room at The New Yorker Hotel. When Tony Pastor's musicians carried their instruments out of the room last night, there went from the New Yorker a 20-year tradition of name dance orchestras and entertainment.

Frank L. Andrews, president of the hotel, blamed the federal excise tax. He said public resistance was stiffening to it "now that the free spending era is at an end."

Other New York hotels which have discontinued floor shows and dancing from dinner and supper rooms include the Blumhouse, Commodore and Belmont Plaza. These changes have been attributed, at least partly, to the government's markup on checks.

The Waldorf-Astoria recently pushed back the start of dancing in its Wedgewood Room by an hour in order to serve a pre-theater dinner free of the entertainment tax.

The mortality among night clubs, where other factors combine to make operation more precarious, has been much greater than in the hotel field.

The American Hotel Association reported that entertainment rooms in many hotels throughout the country have been closed in recent years because of guest resistance to the 20 per cent tax. Citing Pennsylvania as a typical state, the association said that of 26 hotels there that had dancing in their dinner rooms in 1937, only eight have it now.

The association said reduction of the tax to five per cent would bring about reopening of many entertainment rooms and mean substantial new employment.

Railroad to Pay

New Haven, Conn., April 13 (AP)—The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company has agreed to pay $3,250,000 for securities which their present owners—chief among them the New Haven's president, Frederick C.

Dumaine, bought five years ago for $2,250,000. The purchase plan, still subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission, was ratified by stockholders over the objections of a vocal minority at the railroad's annual meeting here yesterday. The vote was 464,846 shares to 84,639.

Tillson 'Vols' Name Officers for Year

Harold Krom was elected president of the Tillson Volunteer Fire Company, Inc., at the annual meeting Tuesday night in the Tillson firehouse.

Frank Minnikine was elected chief taking the place of Russell Douglas who had completed 14 years of service in that office. Members of the company commended Douglas for his many years of efficient service.

Other officers elected were: James Wood, vice president; James J. Burke, Sr., re-elected recording secretary; Morris E. Harvey, re-elected financial secretary; Ferdinand Antony, treasurer; Peter Solderbeck, deputy chief; Kenneth Clark, captain; Chauncey Rowe, lieutenant; Harold Auchmoody, delegate to the state convention; and Peter Solderbeck, alternate.

Former Resident Is Elected Officer by Planners' Society

FREDERICK P. CLARK

Cambridge, Mass., April 11—Frederick P. Clark, formerly of Kingston, has been elected vice president of the American Institute of Planners, the national society of the city planning profession announced today.

Since 1942, except for war service in the navy, Clark has been the planning director of the Regional Plan Association, Inc., with headquarters in New York. This is one of the leading city planning organizations in the United States. Clark will continue his association with the Regional Plan Association, serving simultaneously as officer of the national city planning group.

Clark is the son of Mrs. Grace Clark and the late Leon Clark of 58 South Manor avenue. He attended public schools in Kingston, graduating from Kingston High School in 1926.

A graduate of Cornell University with a degree in architecture and city planning, Clark has had one of the country's most active careers in city and regional planning having been planning director or consultant to the State of New Hampshire, the National Resources Planning Board, the United Nations Headquarters Commission, the National Security Resources Board, the City of New York, the Town of Montclair, N. J., and many other cities, towns and counties throughout New York, New Jersey and New England.

He is at present visiting lecturer on city planning at Columbia University and previously at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is widely known and sought as a speaker and writer on city planning.

Clark obtained outstanding national recognition several years ago as planner of the completely new town which was built at Hill, N. H. This town, incorporating advanced ideas in city planning from the standpoint of economy, attractiveness and convenience, continues to attract nationwide attention.

He lives at Rye, where he serves as a citizen member and chairman of the Rye City Planning Commission, which has compiled an enviable record in successful guidance of city development.

Orange County Backing Ewing for Governor

Newburgh, N. Y., April 12 (AP)—Thomas J. V. Cullen, chairman of the Orange County Democratic Committee, says he is supporting Oscar R. Ewing as a Democratic candidate for governor of New York.

Cullen said yesterday in voice-ing his approval of Ewing that he believed it would be difficult for W. Averell Harriman, ambassador of the Economic Cooperation Administration, to give up his position in world affairs to run for the governorship.

Harriman is a resident of Orange county.

Cullen said Ewing would address a Democratic Party fundraising dinner in Port Jervis May 23.

The only real hug-the-road ride is "The New Step-Down Ride"

. . . because Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any car!

There's nothing so delightful in all motoring as "The New Step-Down Ride"!

And why?

Consider this—technicians in the industry have known for years that the lower a car can be built, the better it will ride, the more surely it will handle and the safer it will be.

You instantly see that the beautiful new Hudson, thanks to its recessed floor ("step-down" design), is the lowest-built of them all—and this right along with full road clearance and more head and seating room than any other car! As a result of this low build, you know instinctively that Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American automobile! You can just look at this remarkable car and tell that it rides smoother, hugs the road tighter than any you've driven before!

Yes, "The New Step-Down Ride" is a wonderfully safe, hug-the-road way of going that just naturally spoils you for any other car!

Wouldn't you like to try this "New Step-Down Ride" soon?

We cordially invite you to come in, enjoy Hudson's thrilling ride. Try the new no-shift Super-matic Drive, and the other high-quality features that make "step-down" designed Hudsons leaders in resale value, as shown by Official Used Car Guide Books!

*Optional at extra cost.

Coffee, Vegetables And Chickens Are Lower in Markets

(By The Associated Press)

Several brands of coffee, a few spring vegetables, and broiling and frying chickens were a little cheaper in most stores this week. There was a scattering of small reductions on some lamb and pork items, but no general retail price movement in meats. Eggs and dairy products held close to pre-Easter levels.

On the produce counters, asparagus, artichokes, cabbage, peas, peppers, spinach, strawberries and tomatoes were marked down as shipments increased. But several vegetables edged upward, too—snap beans and cucumbers particularly, as good quality supplies proved inadequate for the demand. Onions, carrots, bleached celery and lettuce also were somewhat higher. A wholesale produce specialist of the Agriculture Department in New York said a cold snap in the area centering around the Carolinas threatened widespread damage to new crops of beans, radishes, eggplant, tomatoes, watermelons and peaches. Frosts also dimmed the peach prospects in many growing sections farther south and in the midwest. And the Pacific northwest peach crop was expected to be extremely short because of severe weather earlier.

Cuts Are Initiated
The coffee price cuts, amounting to two cents a pound in most instances, were initiated by a few nationally advertised vacuum-packed brands and then followed by most regional marketers.

One national distributor said green coffee prices do not justify the reduction (third this year for many of the roasters) but "it has definitely been established that intense consumer resistance is encountered at 80-cent retail levels."

The major chain stores, whose cheaper bag-packed coffees have not suffered as steep a sales drop, did not trim prices on their own brands immediately. Some trade sources estimated vacuum-packed coffee sales are running as much as 30 per cent below last year's level.

14 Per Cent Taken Off
The Agriculture Department this week lopped nearly 14 per cent off its winter wheat crop estimate. The federal crop board blamed the reduction chiefly on dry weather, greenbug infestation centered in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and southern Kansas (and described as the severest in modern farm history), and on acreage abandonment in the southern great plains. Observers said if spring wheat production should also be curtailed and the year's total this year dropped below a prospective billion-bushel market, the 425,000,000 bushels of wheat in the government's surplus stocks might well come in handy to meet U. S. domestic and export needs.

The department also estimated the 1949-50 orange crop will be two per cent above last season, but grapefruit production will be down 19 per cent.

On the lighter side of the food news: The National Donut Week Committee (the week begins Saturday) announced that the "official" size of the donut hole is to be reduced to 3/4-inch from the 1/2-inch diameter which has prevailed for some years. The change will be effected in most of the industry's automatic machines next week after a suitable ceremony in New York, the committee said, "because we feel it will make donuts easier to hold for dunking." Americans consumed about 12,000,000,000 donuts last year, a spokesman said.

A DAZZLING CLEAN WASH WITHOUT RINSING

...IT'S A NEW TIDE MIRACLE!

"I'M THROUGH WITH RINSING—THANKS TO TIDE!"

SAYS MRS. GLORIA GUY, DETROIT, MICH.

"The grandest thing that ever happened to washday is Tide—without rinsing! The time it saves! Best of all—washes come out clean and dazzling white! So, why waste time rinsing when clothes come out like that without rinsing?"

Just wash—wring out—hang up!

WOMEN EVERYWHERE say it's the greatest thing that ever happened to washday! They love the time and trouble they save by skipping the rinsing! They love the way it cuts down water bills! But most of all they love the way their clothes come dazzling clean... so clean they can't tell the difference between a Tide wash that's been rinsed and one that hasn't.

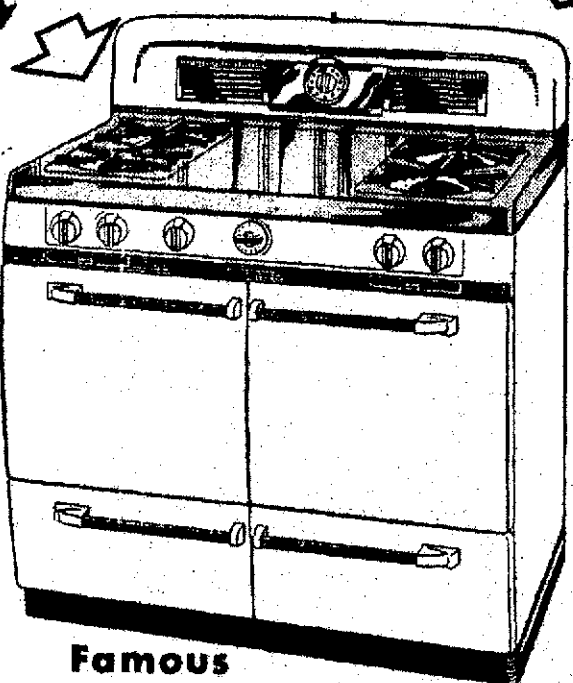

YOU ALREADY KNOW how clean Tide gets your clothes with rinsing—cleaner than any other washing product known. Now try the same wonderful Tide without rinsing and compare the results. You'll be amazed to see how bright and clean your wash comes right from the wringer. Get Procter & Gamble's Tide today—every package of Tide on your dealer's shelf right now will give you a dazzling clean wash without rinsing!

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT WASHING WITHOUT RINSING

1. How can Tide get clothes clean without rinsing? Tide keeps the dirt suspended in the sudsy water. When you wring out the clothes, the dirt runs out with the washwater—clothes come from the wringer CLEAN, and dry as bacteria free as rinsed clothes.
2. Will clothes come white? Yes, dazzling white! Just see if you can tell the difference between a rinsed, and an unrinsed Tide-washed shirt!
3. How about ironing unrinsed clothes? When you use Tide without rinsing, clothes dry soft and fluffy... iron easily.
4. Is this method safe for fabrics? Yes, it is safe... skipping the rinsing and extra wringings actually saves wear and tear on clothes.

Plans Are Made
For Chest X-ray
Survey in May

At a meeting of the health officials held on Monday at the department office, initial plans were formulated for the organizational aspects of a community chest X-ray survey to be conducted for Ulster county beginning May 16.

According to Dr. Robert H. Broad, Ulster county commissioner of health, the chest X-ray unit of the New York State Health Department will be used for the films which will be taken of all persons 15 years of age and over. Townships of Ulster county not already covered by previous community chest X-ray programs will be included in the coming survey.

Dr. George W. Weber, director of tuberculosis control in Ulster county, will interpret the films. Every person X-rayed will receive an individual report of his X-ray. The Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association was delegated by the commissioner of health to assist in the publicity, promotion and community organization as well as clerical assistance which out of necessity, must precede and cover such a project. The association will bear the cost of these phases of the survey through its Christmas Seals funds.

Miss Katherine M. Murphy, R.N., executive secretary, stated that tentative plans consisting of an X-ray location in various places of the county with individual committees responsible for the various aspects of promotion would be set up within a few days. Dr. Broad stressed the fact that with the completion of this survey every citizen in Ulster county over 15 years of age will have been given the opportunity of having a free chest X-ray.

Kingston Man Home to Recruit

In accordance with new policy, the army has assigned a local man to recruiting service at the central post office, Sgt. First Class Raymond G. Ingersoll, left. He is being welcomed by the station commander, Master Sergeant Alva H. McGinnis. Sgt. Ingersoll is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ingersoll of Woodstock, a grandson of the late Rev. Raymond P. Ingersoll, pastor of the former Roundout Baptist Church, and is married to the former Elizabeth Heaps, organist at Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, a lifelong resident of this city. Ingersoll joined the army in 1941 and has seen service in the Panama Canal Zone and Germany. He is a graduate of Kingston High School, class of 1936. The local office covers recruiting in Ulster, and parts of Delaware and Greene counties. (Freeman Photo)

Suit Settled for $40,000

New York, April 13 (AP)—A singer, who says she hasn't been able to sing since her husband's auto accident death, has settled a suit against the driver of the auto for $40,000. Lovely Marthe Errolle, 31, opera, concert and night club singer, had sued Joseph

A. Kelly, 30, a chemical firm executive for $150,000 damages. She said she "lost her ability to sing," and suffered from insomnia as a result of her husband's death last December 22 in a car being driven by Kelly. Her husband, John Errolle, 29, and Kelly were returning from an air national guard meeting at Harrison, N. Y., when the car struck a tree beside the Bronx River Parkway in White Plains, N. Y.

McGoldrick Says
Tenants Can Relax
Under Safeguards

New York, April 13 (AP)—"The tenants can relax—the safeguards will remain" when New York state takes over rent controls on May 1, says State Rent Administrator Joseph D. McGoldrick.

McGoldrick made the statement at a news conference yesterday as he explained plans for assuming controls now exercised by the federal government and New York city.

He said he plans to set up a staff of 500 to 600, mostly recruited from persons who have had city or federal rent office experience.

The federal staff has included nearly 800, and the city rent commission about 150 more.

The agency to administer the new state law will have approximately the same number of offices and branches as have been operated by federal rent officials.

At present, McGoldrick said, he has 11 attorneys and office workers with him drawing up regulations and forms. State headquarters will be on the second floor at 280 Broadway, in space formerly occupied by the editorial offices of the New York Sun.

The administrator said there will be ten offices upstate, and others in the various boroughs of New York city and at Mineola on Long Island.

McGoldrick said his agency will be concerned at first with eviction controls and landlord-tenant disputes over the provision of services or abuses of tenancy.

Rents in general, he said, will be those in effect on March 1, 1949. The state agency, however, is required to begin a general study of housing shortages or surpluses.

pluses, and the financial returns on privately operated housing. McGoldrick estimated that his agency will have jurisdiction over 1,800,000 registered rental units in New York city and Long Island, and 781,000 upstate.

The administrator said he hopes to have ready by May 1 regulations to permit voluntary written agreements by which individual rents may be raised or lowered, to reflect the addition or withdrawal of services by a landlord.

Reds Look Up Cops

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, April 13 (AP)—Police at rural Ubelandia are wearing red faces these days. Communists locked the cops up in their own jail. Sixty-eight of the Communists at gunpoint seized a British-owned plantation near Ubelandia, 425 miles from Rio de Janeiro. Troops from nearby Belo Horizonte rounded up the Reds, and jailed them. The troops withdrew. Then some 40 Communist sympathizers besieged the jail. They freed the Communists and helped them lock up the police. The troops came back, re-arrested the Communists and freed the police.

Italy Won't Pay
Rome, April 13 (AP)—Italy says she won't pay her $100,000,000 war reparations debt to Russia until agreement is reached on the value of Italian assets seized in Soviet satellite countries. The Russians in a note yesterday pressed for payment out of current Italian production, charging that Italy had placed too great a value on her Russian assets in Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania. The properties were to go in part payment of the reparations debt. The reparations bill was agreed to under the peace treaty and in a subsequent agreement signed in 1945.

Possible Plane Wreckage Seen

Copenhagen, April 13 (AP) — A new report of possible plane wreckage in the Baltic sent U. S. search craft off the Swedish island of Oland today in their hunt for a navy patrol plane missing since Saturday with 10 men aboard.

The first officer aboard the German steamer Juna said he saw what looked like an airplane cabin floating in the Baltic at the southern tip of Oland, which lies off the coast of Sweden across the Baltic from Latvia.

U. S. officials in charge of the search of Copenhagen said one plane was already over the area.

Others were directed to concentrate their efforts there. The new clue coincided with the first hint from the Russians that they consider the missing navy plane with 10 men aboard to be the same one fired at by Soviet fighter planes Saturday when Moscow claimed a U. S. B-29 type plane flew over Latvia. Moscow said that incident occurred in the neighborhood of Lepaya. Oland island is due west of Lepaya, across the Baltic.

American authorities have expressed the fear that Soviet fire caused the navy plane to crash into the Baltic.

The official Communist party newspaper Pravda declared the missing navy plane "violated the Soviet frontier" and engaged in attempted espionage over Russian territory.

Lutzel Jury Chosen In County Court

Eight women and four men finally selected Wednesday afternoon to hear the evidence in the Theodore Lutzel murder trial in County Court. In addition to the regular panel of 12 jurors two alternate jurors were selected, a man and a woman, who will sit in on the final deliberations only if one of the regular panel becomes ill or is excused for some reason. As constituted the jury is composed of eight housewives and the woman alternate is a church organist. The male members of the jury include two farmers, a ship fitter, a retired mechanic, and the alternate is a farmer.

Members of the jury who will hear the evidence and determine whether Theodore Lutzel, 47, former Brooklyn resident who had been residing at Rosendale for some time prior to November 27, 1949, did, as charged by the grand jury, murder Ruth S. Bergemann during the early hours of Sunday, November 27, last:

Mrs. Lulu M. Tongue, Kingston housewife. Mrs. Viva Winnie, Ashokan housewife. Mrs. Marie Stanford, Stone Ridge, housewife. Adolph Godesen, Port Ewen, ship fitter. Harold C. Auchmoody, Tillyson, farm-machinist. Mrs. Nettie M. Brueckner, West Hurley, housewife. Mrs. Julia Marolt, Highland, housewife. Albert Zimmerman, West Hurley, retired mechanic. Mrs. Evelyn Campbell, Kingston, housewife. Mrs. Elsie F. Robb, Whiteport, housewife. John S. Henry, Wawarsing, farmer and Mrs. Florence J. Androm, Connelly, housewife.

The alternates selected Wednesday afternoon just before adjournment at 4 o'clock were:

Mrs. Bessie H. S. Ellison, 12 Maiden Lane, Kingston, a church organist.

Guy F. Gardner, New Paltz, farmer.

It is charged under the first degree indictment that Lutzel killed Ruth S. Bergemann, 38, of High Falls during the early morning hours of Sunday, November 27, 1949, while they were together in her car.

The body of the woman was found lying on the road in front of the High Falls post office with two .38 calibre bullet wounds in the head. She was dead when discovered. Her Chevrolet car was missing. Later the car was recovered in New York city. Lutzel allegedly went to the Elizabeth street police station in New York and, giving himself up, saying, according to the New York police, that he had just killed his girlfriend. Lutzel was brought back to Ulster county and formally charged with murder, first degree.

District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn and Assistant District Attorney Vincent G. Connelly will prosecute the indictment and John A. Bonomi of Ellenville has been retained by the defendant and will appear as defense counsel.

Jurors on the original panel not now on the murder case were excused by County Judge John M. Coshlin until 10 o'clock next Monday.

Scottish Rites Scheduled Here

For the first time in history a meeting of the Scottish Rites will be held in Kingston and degree work conferred upon a class of candidates. The meeting will be Saturday at the Kingston municipal auditorium on central Broadway and all candidates are requested to report at the side door of the auditorium not later than 1:30 o'clock.

There are at present 45 who have signed up for the candidate class and any others who are eligible and may desire to take the degree work here may obtain application blanks from Gordon Craig at the Kingston Trust Company or from Herbert Powell at 259 Fair street before 8 a. m. or after 5 p. m. Information may be obtained by calling Mr. Powell at 4460.

The demand for the degrees has far exceeded the expectation of the committee which made arrangements for the session, but there is still time for filing applications by any eligible Mason.

Conference Would Control 2 Bombs

Kingston, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—The World Methodist Conference was a record today in favor of international control of hydrogen and atom bombs.

The conference, comprising churches in sixteen New York and northern Pennsylvania, approved a strong committee report that said:

"We are concerned about the danger to the President's order to control work on the hydrogen bomb."

"The report continued, implies that we in this 'field of war' have been going on for some time."

The Committee on World Peace headed by the Rev. Charles W. Phillips of Kingston, Pa., submitted the report to the 400 delegates. The five-day annual session ends today.

The Rev. J. V. Tolley, superintendent of the Binghamton district, said the Methodist Church could expect to be attacked by ignorant and inflammatory leaders of divided sects, who are enemies of our unity and strength.

A law against liquor announcements on the radio, was suggested by the Rev. F. W. Connell of Montrose, Pa., Temperance Committee representative.

The Rev. H. P. Kellerman of Schenectady, N. Y., proposed that conference devote one-day meetings devoted to a single theme. Discussions, he said, could cover such topics as the H-bomb, unemployment, poverty and housing.

The temperate Hayden first used the musical note symbol, which means a "B" according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The "B" strikes more than 500,000,000 matches a year.

GIVE CHICKEN OLD-TIME FLAVOR

OLD-TIME SUNDAY CHICKEN in milk gravy is an American favorite, served with crab apple pickles and hot biscuits.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

The "all-purpose chickens" (for broiling, frying or roasting) get themselves easily into family menus.

Let's brush up on chicken cooking, adding two recipes to our file.

For chicken with gravy, purchase one that's fresh, New York dressed (feathers only removed); fresh, fully drawn; or frozen. If the chicken is quick frozen, thaw according to the directions on the box.

In the following recipes the chicken is cooked in its own flavorful gravy. For a truly modern fillip, 1 can of condensed cream of mushroom soup and 1 cup of water heated together may be substituted for the 2 cups of hot milk in the recipe.

Old-Time Chicken

One chicken, 1 egg, ½ cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1½ cups sifted bread or cracker crumbs, ½ cup butter or shortening, 2 cups hot top milk. Have chicken drawn and cut into serving pieces, or, if quick frozen, thaw according to directions on the box. Rinse in cold water and dry. Beat egg slightly and add ½ cup milk. Season chicken pieces. Dip pieces into egg mixture and roll in crumbs. Heat butter in heavy skillet.

Brown chicken, skin side down. Turn and brown other side. Add the hot milk, cover, and simmer on top of range or bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until tender, about 30 to 40 minutes.

Here's a wonderful full-flavored chicken sauce with a colorful, crispy crust.

Relish Crust Chicken Pie (6 Servings)

Two cups diced cooked chicken, 1 cup cooked peas, ½ cup cooked diced celery, 2 cups hot chicken gravy or medium white sauce, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, if desired.

Combine chicken and vegetables and add to gravy. Add seasonings and put into individual buttered baking dishes or a 1½-quart casserole. Top with Relish Crust Biscuits and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Relish Crust Biscuits: 2 cups biscuit mix (home-made or prepared), ¼ teaspoon paprika, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 2 tablespoons grated raw carrot, 1 tablespoon minced green pepper, 2/3 cup milk (approximately).

Combine the biscuit mix, paprika, parsley, carrot and green pepper in a bowl. Make a well in the biscuit mix, add the milk and stir. Stir onto floured board or pastry cloth and knead 6 times. Roll to ½-inch thickness. Cut and place over the hot chicken.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: One-half grapefruit, scrambled eggs, muffins, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Toasted cheese sandwich, sliced tomatoes, lettuce salad, chocolate pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER: Tuna-noodles, casseroles, crisp green salad, frozen or canned peas, enriched bread and butter or fortified margarine, ice cream, coffee, milk.

Froessel Regarded By Democrats as Possible Choice

Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—

"Watch Froessel."

An informed Democratic source passed on that tip today in analyzing the chances of prospective candidates to head the party's state ticket next fall.

It referred to Charles W. Froessel of Queens, an associate judge of the Court of Appeals, who outstayed the politicians by his vote-pulling power last November.

Right now, in the "winterbook" of politics, Froessel is considered far from an odds-on choice to win the Democratic nomination for governor.

But according to a source in the know, he rates among the top five for the number one spot. The others are W. Averell Harriman, ambassador-at-large of the Economic Cooperation Administration;

Oscar R. Ewing, federal security administrator; Justice Ferdinand Pecora of the State Supreme Court, and Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr.

The situation may tell somewhat next Wednesday when State Chairman Paul A. Fitzpatrick meets with Democratic county leaders in New York city a few hours before the party's $100-a-plate dinner to raise funds for the fall campaign.

Fitzpatrick will ask the county chairman to state their preferences for the gubernatorial nomination and to list issues they believe will appeal to voters, locally and statewide.

James R. O'Connell, Democratic leader of Queens, will be on hand to heat the drums for Judge Froessel, a quiet type of "solid citizen," who proved last fall that he has what it takes at the polls.

Without fanfare, Froessel defeated the Republican candidate, Bruce Cronley of Brooklyn who was serving by interim appointment of Governor Dewey, by more than 400,000 votes.

On the same day, former Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, one of the Democratic powerhouses in this state, beat John Foster Dulles for a U. S. Senate seat, by less than 200,000.

The fund-raising dinner will give Harriman a chance to strut his stuff. He will be the principal speaker.

Program for Spivakovsky Recital Monday Includes Works by Beethoven, Paganini

Tosny Spivakovsky, sensational concert violinist who will be presented by the Community Concert Association at Kingston High School Monday will play a program of works by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Paganini, Wieniawski, Rhythms, Bartok and Tchaikovsky.

The program includes:
Prelude and Adagio in E Minor—Bach
Rondo—Allegro assai, Op. 30—Beethoven
Concerto in D minor, Op. 24, No. 2—Wieniawski
Hommage a Chopin—Karl Rathaus
Etude (Posthumous)—Chopin-Spivakovsky
Caprice No. 24—Paganini
Roumanian Dances—Bartok
Valse-Scherzo—Tchaikovsky
The longest work in the program is in three movements. Wieniawski was an eminent violinist for whom technical difficulties did not exist. His few compositions are brilliant.

and well written. This concerto reveals all his romantic tendencies, especially in the second movement.
The Chopin etude, originally for piano, was transcribed for violin by Mr. Spivakovsky. Spivakovsky is noted for his playing of Bach's multiple-voiced melodies, in which his unusual method of bowing is reputed to make possible effects which have not been smoothly achieved since the shape of the bow was changed.

In choosing a work of Bela Bartok for his program, Mr. Spivakovsky pays tribute to a composer who contributed to his sudden phenomenal acclaim. It was Bartok's extraordinarily difficult Violin Concerto, played in premiere performance by Spivakovsky in New York and San Francisco, which launched the violinist firmly upon his United States career. In San Francisco, the ovation given Mr. Spivakovsky was the greatest in memory, and in New York, critic Virgil Thompson wrote:

"Mr. Spivakovsky's violin playing in the piece was unforgettable. Such unflinching nobility of tone, such evenness of coloration through the scale and, most extraordinary of all, such impeccable pitch would have been news in a piece from the simplest regions of standard repertoire. In a work of such original texture and exorbitant difficulty as a Bartok concerto, the mastery of his performance, both technically and musically, left one a little gasping."

Bartok, born in Hungary in 1881, died in the United States where he had settled shortly after the outbreak of the second world war.
The Rathaus work, "Hommage a Chopin," was chosen to commemorate the centenary of the death of Chopin. Rathaus is a contemporary Polish composer, who wrote this piece last summer especially for Mr. Spivakovsky.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur De Forest Miller, of Saugerties, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gaud, Port Ewen. They were married in Woodstock by the Rev. Harry Cornford, April 10, 1900. (Kinkadee & Hulton Photo)

Shirley Harcourt, Fred A. Fowler, Wed Easter Sunday

Miss Shirley Lotraine Harcourt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Harcourt, Modena, became the bride of Fred A. Fowler Easter Sunday in the Modena Methodist Church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Fowler, Clintondale.

The Rev. Evyn M. Adams, pastor of the church, officiated. The church was decorated with white gladioli, white snapdragons and Easter lilies. Mrs. Leonard Coy, Jr., organist, played traditional wedding selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue gabardine suit with navy and white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. Miss Shelly Ann Harcourt, maid of honor, wore an air-line blue gabardine suit with blue accessories and a pink rose corsage.

Gerald C. DeWitt, of Modena was best man and usher, were Robert O. Coy, Clintondale, and II. Oscar Mount, Clintondale, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

A reception was held after the ceremony at The Lorraine, on the New Paltz-Highland road, for immediate members of the family, and the couple left for a motor trip south. Upon their return they will live in Clintondale.

The bride is a graduate of Wallkill Central School and New Paltz State Teachers College. She is a member of Avonlea society and Epworth. Della Chu, honorary teaching society. The groom attended Highland schools.

The bride is a teacher in Ardsley. Mr. Fowler is employed by the New York Telephone Co., Newburgh. He was in the army air corps for three years, and served overseas.

Mrs. Schorr to Sing At Emanuel Dance; Was With Waring

Coterie Club Hears Paper on Poet Frost

Miss Mabel Hale told a meeting of the Coterie Club April 1, at the home of Mrs. Frank Thompson, 256 W. Chestnut street, that poet Robert Frost was born in San Francisco, although the New England influence is strong in most of his poetry.

In her paper on Frost, Miss Hale said that eight generations of Frost's forefathers had lived in the east, and that he himself was brought back to the east by his mother after his father's death.

Frost's poetry was rejected by publishers for some time, Miss Hale reported. He married in 1895 at the age of 20, and later became a very indifferent farmer. He went to England in 1912 and for the first time moved in a literary world. His real career began there, with the publication of two books, and in 1915, when he returned to the U. S., he found himself famous.

Since then his life has been a succession of honors. Among other honors, he has received the Pulitzer prize three times, Miss Hale said.

Kate Wolff, Pianist, To Give Bard Recital

Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y., April 13—Kate Wolff, pianist, will give a piano concert at Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, Wednesday, April 19, at 8:30 p. m. in Bard Hall. Her program will include compositions by Johann Sebastian Bach, George Philipp Telemann, Christian Gottlieb Neefe, Ludwig van Beethoven, Johannes Brahms, and Darius Milhaud.

Mrs. Wolff has been a member of the Bard College Music faculty since 1944 and is well known from her numerous appearances throughout the Hudson valley. A graduate of Stern's Conservatorium in Berlin, Mrs. Wolff has given concerts in European capitals as well as radio performances in this country and abroad. The public is cordially invited to attend the recital.

Three Kingston Girls Will Receive Caps As Albany Nurses

Albany—Three Kingstonians are among the 103 student nurses from Union University School of Nursing, Albany Hospital, Albany, who will receive their caps at ceremonies to be held at Albany Law School at 2:30 p. m. this Saturday.

The Kingston student nurses were listed by the hospital as Rachel Caunt, Esther Ritvanen, and Dorothea Wilson.
Dr. Carter Davidson, Chancellor of Union University, will be the principal speaker. The capping ceremony will mark the completion of basic studies for first year students. They will start their clinical work and advanced studies next week.

Light Snow Falls Over Most of State

Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—Light snow fell over most of New York state today and true spring weather seemed far away.

The weather bureau said temperatures wouldn't get much above freezing today and snow flurries would continue.

In most places, the snow melted as it touched the ground. New York city had a mixture of snow and rain.

Tonight, the mercury was expected to dip to lows of 10 to 15 degrees in the northeastern part of the state and 15 to 20 in other sections.

Continued cold was forecast for tomorrow.

Today's early morning temperatures generally were in the 20's.

THESE ARE FASHION FINDS TAGGED UNDER $10

These dresses tag fine fashion at a modest "under ten dollar" price. Imported navy blue dotted dress (left) is crisply accented by horizontal bands of white pique. Yellow sun-back dress (center) of combed broadcloth has a tucked bodice and adjustable shoulder

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

New York—(NEA)—For less than $10, American women can buy a lot of fine fashion this season. Washable dresses that carry these modest price tags are carefully designed, made of fine imported and domestic fabrics and boast styling details of dresses that cost five times as much.

For the first time since before the war, sheer woven tissue plaid gingham of a quality used in these modest price tags are care-up in one group of inexpensive dresses of Nell Bee design. Imported dotted swiss and fine-combed broadcloth are other fabrics proudly displayed by budget-wise fashions.

Details like graduated tuckings and mitered plaid skirts add an expensive look to classic styles. So do pearl buttons dyed to match the fabrics. To give a busy woman freedom of movement, dresses are designed with easy fitting bodices and moderately flared skirts. Pre-shrinking insures a sleek fit no matter how often the clothes are laundered.

Contract Is Awarded
Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—A $1,176,745 state contract was awarded today for additions and alterations to three buildings at Matteawan State Hospital, Beacon. The Public Works Department said Gens-Jarboe, Inc., of New York city would alter and enlarge disturbed patients buildings 4A and 7A to provide more than 170 new rooms. The wooden roofs of the structures will be replaced with concrete slab roofing. Building No. 5 will be reconstructed to provide a modern dining room for the institution.

HOME BUREAU

High Falls

The High Falls Unit elected their officers for the coming year at a meeting Monday evening, April 10 at the home of Mrs. Carlton Beach. The officers are Mrs. John Ham, president; Miss Anna Draut, vice-president; Mrs. A. Abrahamson, secretary; Mrs. Festus Yonke, treasurer. Officers will attend a county meeting soon to acquaint themselves with their duties. The past year has been a successful one and much interest is being shown in the project for the coming season. Fourteen members were present including the Mrs. Henry Houska, Sr., Henry Houska Jr., Dewitt Hasbrouck, James VanDemark, Arnold vanLaer Sr., Festus Yonke, Ernest Jansen, Carlton Beach, John Ham, Elmer Schoonmaker, George Stokes, K. Olsen, and A. Abrahamson, and Miss Anna Draut.

Krippelbush Unit

The Krippelbush Home Bureau Unit will meet April 19 at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Clarence Miller. Miss Evelyn Parsons will speak on mental health.

Accord Unit

The Accord Home Bureau Unit held its regular meeting April 6 at the home of Mrs. Franklin Kelder, with Miss Helen Rowe, assistant county demonstration agent, giving a talk on how to adjust sewing machines for proper sewing and stitching.

She also demonstrated the way to put a zipper in a dress.

The first lesson on huck towel bags will be held Friday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Edward Carlo. All those interested in attending were asked to bring a huck towel, a tapestry needle and two half skeins of wool in contrasting colors.

Skeletons of Babies Found in Fireplace

Baltimore, April 13 (AP)—The skeletons of three babies apparently dead for more than 25 years were discovered last night in the boarded-up fireplace of a home here.

Mrs. Marie Plage dropped her ring through a crack in the mantle. To get to it, she ripped up a piece of loose lin and uncovered a bundle of cloth.

She unwrapped the cloth and saw the skeleton of a small baby. She jumped back, screaming. Her uncle, Fred Scheiderger, summoned police. Officers probed into the opening and removed two other small skeletons.

One of them was wrapped in a paper dated September 18, 1921, and the other in a paper dated January 27, 1923.

Mrs. Plage told police she had lived in the house about a year. Dr. William Kammer, who identified the remains as human bones, ordered them taken to the morgue, where a thorough examination will be conducted today.

Newcomers Feature Early Drills of Colonials at Lakewood Camp

Intra-Squad Game Scheduled Today By Manager Gall

Lakewood, N. J., April 13.—With the limited spring training grind rapidly approaching the first actual competition against the famed Redwicks on Sunday at Woodhaven, L. I., Manager Emil Gall of the Kingston Colonials was scheduled to send his charges through a nine-inning intra-squad game this afternoon.

Although the club has only been in camp since Easter Sunday, Gall expressed satisfaction with the showing to date of the entire squad.

Meanwhile, reports come out of this New Jersey training base indicating strong help for this year's Colonial League entry for Kingston.

With a general housecleaning plan announced for last year's disastrous club, Gall is giving close attention to several newcomers whom he expects will make the grade and give plenty of help in building the Colonials to a pennant contender.

Such players as Mori Freilich, the ex-Saugerties High School mound ace; Al Terardi, the Puerto Rican outfielder; and Vince Gleason already have made a big hit with the local scribes.

A couple of other new faces in camp, namely Harold "Pete" Braun, a right-handed pitcher, and Johnny Walther of Troy, infielder, also look sharp.

Although lacking professional experience, Braun, a native of Rutherford, N. J., stands 5 feet 10 inches, and weighs 165. Braun, who has been nicknamed "The Kid" by his teammates at camp, is only 19 and has caught the eye of Manager Gall. He attended Rutherford High School and pitched three years of varsity ball.

Walther, 22 years old, started his professional career in 1925 with Horrell of the Class D Pony League where he batted .268. He entered the army following the 1925 campaign and remained in service until 1927.

Hurley Gun Club To Meet Tonight

An important meeting of the Hurley Rod and Gun Club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the town hall, Den Krom add today.

All members are requested to attend as matters of importance to the entire organization will be discussed.

Training Camp News in Brief

(By The Associated Press)
Ridgville, N. C., April 13 (AP)—Pitcher Sid Hudson apparently will be ready for the start of the season next week. The Washington Senators pitcher, who hurt his arm March 28, showed signs of recovery yesterday at Durham. In six innings he yielded seven hits, but did not issue a walk. He struck out six and gave up two runs.

The Senators play Ridgville today.

Memphis, Tenn., April 13 (AP)—Because of injuries the Detroit Tigers aren't sure of their starting outfield for the American League opener Tuesday at Cleveland.

Their only fully sound regular is Johnny Groh. Foot Evers' had ankle "feels much better" but is questionable. Vic Wertz also has an injured ankle but he is back in action.

Kansas City, Mo., April 13 (AP)—One way or another Manager Lou Boudreau's problems with overage Cleveland Indians appeared on the way to solution today.

As the Indians arrived for today's exhibition against the New York Giants, one veteran was on his way home and another was showing signs of a comeback.

Ken Keltner, a fixture at third base since 1938, left the club yesterday for his Milwaukee home with an unconditional release. Bob Feller, however, looked something like he did in his prime yesterday when his fast ball and a sharp breaking curve led the Indians to a 9-4 win and an 8-7 series edge over the Giants.

Boudreau called in Al Rosen to fill the spot left vacant by Keltner, the 10th Indian to be dropped since spring training started.

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—Cold weather threatened to force postponement of an exhibition between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees today.

Temperatures dipped several degrees below the freezing mark during the night and the weather bureau predicted a high of only 40 by mid-afternoon.

Concey Stengel said if the weatherman permits, he will start Ed Lopat. Manager Billy Meyer nominated Bob Chesnes to oppose the American League.

Kansas City, April 13 (AP)—The New York Giants' roster was down to 28 today.

In optioning young second baseman Bobby Hoffman to the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League yesterday, Skipper Leo Durocher's squad was cut to just three above the major league limit.

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—Big Johnny Mize's first 1930 appearance as the New York Yankees' first baseman ran true to form—he still can slug, but is slow in the field.

The veteran played five and a half innings yesterday against Cincinnati and, in the first of his three times at bat, walloped a two-run homer.

Joe DeMaggio played four and a half innings, getting a double in three tries. His spring batting average is now .416.

District Attorney Bruhn Elected New K.B.A. President

These Two Were Truly Great:

The tragic deaths less than a month apart of two of the world's greatest pocket billiard masters—Ralph Greenleaf and Andrew Ponzi—recall their many spectacular performances in Kingston during the past decade.

Greenleaf, a suave, svelte, collar-ad type, was mechanically, perhaps, the soundest pocket billiard player of all time. He held the world's championship 14 times, winning 13 of the titles in succession. Ponzi cornered three world's hauls and a flock of national titles.

He Was the Master Showman:

You remember Greenleaf for his showmanship, his flair for the spectacular, seemingly impossible shot. His stroking was a thing of beauty and just to entertain audiences he would deliberately misnomer his cue ball to a 45-degree angle for a break shot. One flawless stroke and the cue ball would start dicing and dicing into the heap. The results were as if an electric eel had wiggled its way into the heap. It was the kind of break shot that ordinary mortals dream about—the maximum of "English" into the triangle. And, of course, if you think executing a break from about a 45-degree angle is easy, try it some time.

The Time He Overslept:

Nick Kaslich, the genial proprietor of the uptown billiard emporium who has been host to all the greats in 30 years of business, likes to recall the last time Greenleaf visited Kingston. Greenleaf, who was anything but a purist in training habits, was in the midst of one of his periodic escapades.

Came time for the exhibition match and Nick's place was packed. Nick began to sweat and the crowd began to stir. Suddenly someone recalled that Greenleaf had parked his car in the parking lot behind the court house. Nick dispatched a messenger to the car and, sure enough, there was Greenleaf sleeping. They roused the immortal star and he barged into the billiard hall and stepped up to the table without any formalities. He made the customary break for his opponent—his name escapes us at the moment—who missed and Greenleaf promptly reeled off a string of 59 balls.

Ponzi Ran 126 in Kingston:

Ponzi was one of the great personalities of the trade, an extremely popular Philadelphiaian who is credited with the highest run ever recorded in Kingston—a skein of 126. He achieved the trick at a place operated by Tony Pino on Crown street. It has long since passed into the limbo.

If we remember correctly, Ponzi, then at the peak of his career and pretender to the throne dominated for so many years by Greenleaf, needed 83 balls to run out a 125-point match. He had started in ragged fashion but soon hit his stride and pocketed rack after rack. When Ponzi clicked his 125th point, the crowd clamored for more and Andy responded. He extended the streak to 126 and then deliberately drew into a side pocket for a scratch to end the performance.

Greenleaf was the Babe Ruth of his trade. His rivals paid him the supreme compliment and always rated him the best.

By a co-incidence both fell victims to heart disease. Maybe this pocket billiard stuff isn't the clinch most people think it is.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Ronnie Scheffle's rooters are hoping two to one that he picks Syracuse University over Gettysburg for his next alma mater. They figure that if he is to acquire a basketball reputation, Syracuse is the logical place. John P. Buddy Smith, of Ithaca College, ranked 59th in the country in scoring ability. He flung 53.9 per cent of his shots through the hoop, or 131 out of 243 tries, averaged 17.2 points per game for a total of 343. . . . Pete Hatch (remember him?), Ithaca College football and lacrosse coach, will operate a boys' camp at Red Creek (Wayne county) from July 1 to August 26. Edmund Gilligan will address the 66th anniversary dinner of the Saugerties Fish and Game Club on April 27 at the P.V.I. . . . Danny O'Connell, the highly touted Pittsburgh Pirate rookie second sacker, is the same Danny O'Connell who played with the Bloomingdale Flyers of the North Atlantic League in 1927. That's coming up in a hurry. His teammate, Carl "Buck" Sawalski, already is on the Chicago Cub roster.

Calling all wolves: The state tournament resumes at the Bowlium this week-end.

Eight Indictments Given in Race 'Fix'

Portsmouth, N. H., April 13 (AP)—The Rockingham County Grand Jury returned eight indictments last night against two men charged with doping horses last fall at Rockingham Park in an effort to fix races.

Forest C. Wilson of Los Angeles, Calif., was indicted on one count while William Weaver, Nogales, Ariz., was indicted on seven different charges.

Authorities accused Weaver of placing sponges in nostrils of seven of nine horses in the seventh race at the Salem Park last Oct. 23.

Investigators for the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau charged that Weaver, acting on instructions from Wilson, attempted to fix the race for a horse named Crisis.

Dodgers at Ebbets Field

Brooklyn, April 13 (AP)—Manager Burt Shotton had his Brooklyn Dodgers back home at Ebbets Field today to prep for tomorrow's exhibition contest with the New York Yankees.

Tourney Handicap Eliminated; Entry Fees Are Reduced

LOUIS G. BRUHN
District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn was unanimously elected president of the Kingston Bowling Association during the annual meeting Wednesday night at the Y.M.C.A.

Bruhn replaces Charles J. Tiano as head of the organization who was elected fourth vice president last night.

The selection of District Attorney Bruhn as president was his second such election as president of the K.B.A. He was voted into that post during the war years but left for military service before completing his term of office.

Others elected at last night's session follow:
Bill Kuehn, first vice-president.
Tony LaRocca, second vice-president.

Joe Magnino, third vice-president, by a vote of 131 to 128 over Len Freer.

Charles J. Tiano, fourth vice-president.
Ray Cord, secretary, by a vote of 229 to 45 over Gil Sampson.

Eltinge "Pop" Auchmoody, holdover treasurer.
Directors named to the board included Joe Messinger, Mamie Colao and Jake "Scribe" Chichelsky who were named on the first ballot. Jack Blinder was added to the board on the third ballot.

Handicap Vetted
The directors last night voted to operate next year's Kingston Bowling Association tourney on a no handicap basis in the Class A, B and C bowling. They also voted to experiment with the new Hallstrom system in the all-events.

Another decision reached last night was a lower entry fee of $2.50 for singles, and doubles in the tourney. The former price was $3.50. Entry fee for the all-events will be $5.

Among the other decisions agreed upon by the directors was the matter of payment of blind scores. In the future the league and alley owner will be held responsible for blind scores. The board also instructed Peter Keresman, delegate to the American Bowling Congress, to support any movement designed to eliminate the whole male clause.

About 35 delegates and members of the board of directors attended the meeting.

Patrick Is Conndent Of Rangers' Chances

Toronto, April 13 (AP)—"We can beat them."

That was the confident prediction of Coach Lynn Patrick as he prepared his New York Rangers for their second game tonight with the Detroit Red Wings in the final Stanley Cup hockey series.

The Red Wings, regular season champions, won the opening game Tuesday night at Detroit, 4-1. The series is best-of-seven.

The Rangers, who upset Montreal in the semi-finals, blamed

Young Bauer Gals Plan Pro Careers

New York, April 13 (AP)—The frisky, good looking Bauer sisters will swing at golf balls for pay from now on.

Marlene, 16, and Alice, 22, said yesterday, through father Dave, they were giving up their amateur standing to join the professionals.

They will enter their first tournament at Public Beach, Calif., April 20 under the management of Fred Corcoran, tournament manager of the Women's Professional Golf Association. Opponents will include pro's Babe Didrickson Zaharias and Patty Berg.

Corcoran joined Bauer in making the announcement at a cocktail party in a midtown hotel.

No member of the United States Golf Association, which has been frowning at Marlene and Alice, attended. But Joe Dey, executive secretary, said the Bauers have the best wishes of the U.S.G.A. because "they are a nice family."

The U.S.G.A. said last month it was investigating the amateur standing of the two youngsters, and there was talk of barring them from future tournaments. Dey refused to say yesterday on what charges his group was checking the girls. The U.S.G.A. now will drop the investigation.

Marlene won the national junior girls title and reached the national women's amateur semifinals last year. She was voted woman athlete of the year in the annual Associated Press poll.

Corcoran said the girls will play at Chicago May 6-7, at Cleveland May 13-14 and White Plains, N. Y., May 20-21.

Telecasts Planned

New York, April 13 (AP)—The day home games of the Brooklyn Dodgers and 14 of the Stadium games of the New York Yankees will be telecast by Station WNBC-TV in New Haven. Separate deals have just about been completed among WNBC, WOR-TV, WABD-TV, the ball clubs and the various sponsors.

BAUER SISTERS ENTER PRO GOLF RANKS

Marlene Bauer (left), 16, and her 22-year-old sister, Alice, hold up professional golfing contracts in New York after signing to compete in tournaments of the Ladies' Professional Golf Association. Marlene was national junior girls champion and semi-finalist in the women's national amateur golf tournament last year. She was voted the woman athlete of the year in the annual Associated Press poll.

Editor, The Freeman:

I notice in the issue of The Kingston Daily Freeman of Tuesday, April 11th, in the column entitled "Sports" written by Charles J. Tiano, the following sentence: "Judge John M. Cashin promptly lubbed Marlene Bauer, the 15-year-old golfing sensation—as a juvenile delinquent."

This is to advise that I have never made any such statement as published and I feel that, in fairness to me, your paper should promptly see that such statement is corrected. I was informed by Mr. Tiano last evening that the matter was mistakenly printed.

Be that as it may, I believe that your paper should correct such statement immediately.

Very truly yours,
JOHN M. CASHIN

Fulton Open Starts Today in Atlanta

Atlanta, April 13 (AP)—In this one-time capital city of golf where the game seems to come naturally, the touring professionals today began the $10,000 North Fulton Open.

The usual cast of stars opened the tournament at the 6,762-yard North Fulton Park course. In addition to deciding who the winner will be, the stars will find out if Atlanta still is blasé about professional golf.

Many times the touring troupe has come to Atlanta but seldom has it attracted enough fans to turn a profit for sponsors. Why? Nobody seems to know definitely.

Some oldtime golfers and golf fans hereabouts think that native Bobby Jones ruined Atlanta as a golfing proposition for golf 20 years ago.

Oldtimers ask, "Why pay money this week to go watch Sam Snead, Jimmy Demaret, Cary Middlecott, Johnny Palmer, and the rest? Not too many years ago we went out and watched Bobby Jones free."

Besides Bobby Jones, Atlanta has watched other citizens who count their golf titles by the barrel—Charlie Yates of the British amateur and many other crowns; Louise Suggs, the present National and Western Open champion; Dorothy Kirby, the queen of run-ups up who usually loses to fellow Georgian, Miss Suggs; Alex Stirling, three times Women's National Amateur champion and a Hall of Fame girl; also Perry Adair, who was better than Bobby when they were boys, and Watts Gunn who with Jones formed the only National Amateur finalist state to come from the same home club—Atlanta's East Lake.

Middlecott, Mangrum, Snead and company, are just a bunch of Johnny come latitudes hard to get excited about after you've watched grand slam Bobby—the natives say.

Picking a winner of the North Fulton Open involves mostly Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret. Demaret likely wouldn't rank that high except for what happened Sunday in Augusta, Ga. Demaret won his third Masters title with 283 strokes. That's plenty good enough to make him a co-favorite.

Snead's powerful drives should be well suited to North Fulton fairways which are longer than the usual courses where winter circuit tournaments are held.

Oakland, Calif. — Art Soto, 151½, Oakland, stopped Earl Turner, 158, Richmond, Calif., 8.

GIANT SCORES AGAINST INDIANS

Joe Lafata, New York Giants infielder, scores on a single by Pitcher Monte Kennedy in the fifth inning of their exhibition game with the Cleveland Indians in Topeka, Kas. Ray Murray, Cleveland catcher, waits for the ball. The umpire is Bill Summers. The Indians won, 9-4. The temperature was only a few degrees above freezing and spectators huddled in their coats. Over-Confidence Only Stumbling Block To Dodgers' Second Straight Pennant Orangeburg, S. C., April 13 (AP)—This is the Brooklyn era in the National League. Unless the confident Dodgers trip over their own press clippings, they figure to win a second straight pennant.

Perhaps the aging St. Louis Cards, with their gilt-edged pitching, again can make it close. Maybe Billy Southworth can threaten with his revamped Boston Braves.

More likely, the Brooklyn club with its speed, extra base power, run-making ability and tight defense has too much on the ball. Except for erratic pitching, the Dodgers are a well-balanced team. They shouldn't lose unless they beat themselves with over-confidence.

Phils Year Away

The Phillies, a real surprise package last year, probably are at least a year away from serious pennant contention. Pittsburgh should do better if second baseman Danny McTigue bounces back. New York, minus some power but stronger in the infield, shapes up as a second division club.

Despite a fine showing in the Grapefruit League, it looks as though the only club Cincinnati can beat out is Chicago. The Cubs' youth movement hasn't had time to jell.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. Brooklyn
2. St. Louis
3. Boston
4. Philadelphia
5. Pittsburgh
6. New York
7. Cincinnati
8. Chicago

Brooklyn is pretty much a "stand pat" club. Rookie third baseman Bob Morgan is the only important addition. He should improve more soon to the batting attack that notched 152 homers, twice as many as anybody else, in 1949.

Jackie Robinson, league batting champ at .342, Carl Furillo and Gil Hodges were the big R.A.I. men last season. Although Robinson, now 31, reported overweight, there is no reason to think he won't be just as good. This may be the year for right fielder Furillo, the Dark-Skinned challenge for the hitting crown. Hodges, only 26, is one of the better first basemen in baseball. Despite a .285 average he knocked in 115 runs.

Pitching Is Problem

Behind the big punch trio, the Brooks show Pee Wee Reese, top shortstop in the league, left fielder Gene Hermanski, center fielder Duke Snider, catcher Roy Campanella and Morgan in the regular lineup.

Pitching is the Dodger problem. But that can't be too serious when you have an ace like Don Newcombe, the jumbo-sized Negro who won 17 games last year. He should win 20 without too much trouble.

Preacher Roe, very effective with enough rest, Joe Hatten and sore-armed Ralph Branca are the other regular starters. You never can tell what new phenom may pop out of Branch Rickey's farm system. There always is the chance of a trade for a regular starter because the Brooks have so much available talent.

As usual, Leo Durocher is riding the league hot seat. Leo's New York Giants had better improve on their fifth-place finish, or else. As a result of the big deal with Boston, the Giants now have a "Durocher style" club. It remains to be seen whether more double plays by the Dark-Skinned combine can offset loss of the home run bats of Gordon and Marshall.

Jack Hand, AP Selector, Picks Red Sox; Proving That Bad Habits Really Stick

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 13 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox look like the class team of the American League with awesome power and enough pitching to win the pennant after two close misses.

All they need is a swift boot out of the starting gate.

Joe McCarthy, away from the World Series since 1943, figures to get the Sox off fast and slide home Oct. 1 with a little to spare. Marsee Joe knows he can't afford another loggy start.

Just as a warning, we handed out the same Red Sox pennant pick the last two years. Look what happened. Cleveland in '48 and the Yankees last summer didn't pay any attention.

New York and Detroit probably will make the most trouble with their fine pitching staffs. The Yanks also have that "strong bench" to help in case of emergencies.

Cleveland has too many infield "big" despite prospects of great seasons by pitchers Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia. Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon must come back to make the Tribe contenders all the way.

A's Have Sore Arms
Philadelphia's sore arm epidemic cooled off the A's as a flag hope. If Joe Coleman and Dick Fowler are in serious trouble, they are in tough shape. The other clubs are just in there to fill out the race.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. Boston
2. New York
3. Detroit
4. Cleveland
5. Philadelphia
6. Chicago
7. St. Louis
8. Washington

Boxers Are "Homers"

As for Boston, the Sox wound up last season with 21 straight at Fenway Park. . . . They start the new campaign with 22 of their first 30 games at the same park with its friendly left field wall.

McCarthy thinks he is in better shape with Al Zarilla in first and Billy Goodman on right. Neither was playing last opening day.

White to Coach Yanks

New York, April 13 (AP)—Jack White, today was named line coach of the New York Yankees of the National Football League. White thus rejoins Red Strader, coach of the Yanks. White was Strader's assistant when Strader was head mentor of the Yankees in the old All-America Football Conference.

New York (St. Nicholas Arena)—Bill Bossio, 120½, Pittsburgh, and Johnny Breeze, 123½, Paterson, N. J., drew, 8.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Buddy Scott,

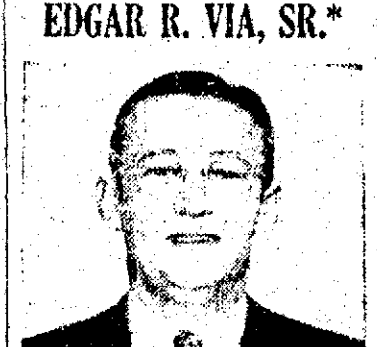

187, Jacksonville, Fla., outpointed Lindholm Pearce, 180, Salt Lake City, 10.

There is no reason to believe that Ted Williams and Vern Stephens, each of whom drove in 150 runs last year, will not have good seasons. Second baseman Bobby Doerr, at 32, is in his best spring shape in years. Dom DiMaggio looks fine, as does Johnny Pesky since his return to the lineup. Birdie Toback will have catching help from veteran Buddy Rosar.

Nobody expects Ellis Kinder to repeat his 23-6 record. Still he should be a consistent winner. Mel Parnell should be just as good and more help is to be expected from Joe Lohman, Maurice McDermott, Chuck Stobbs, Dave Ferriss and Walt Masterson. In addition McCarthy has better bullpen pitchers in Al Papai, Gordon Mueller and Charley Schanz.
